

Councillor wants public hearing

CLLR TAYLOR'S STANDARDS COMMITTEE PROBE IS POSTPONED

A HONITON town councillor and his legal team are determined that a standards committee probe into his conduct should be held in public.

Council stalwart John Taylor has been summoned to appear before an East Devon District Council standards committee following a formal complaint by Honiton Town Council Clerk Chetna Jones.

Cllr Taylor has been an outspoken critic of financial aspects regarding the Beehive project in Honiton.

EDDC has not given any further details, but Cllr Taylor says the complaint is about his criticism of the Beehive project.

Complaints about local town councillors' conduct come under the auspices of East Devon District Council (EDDC).

An investigation has been carried out and the findings of the report were initially set to be discussed by EDDC's Standards Hearings Sub-Committee, chaired by Cllr Stuart Hughes, on Friday, November 6th.

But the meeting was postponed and a new date is yet to be announced. EDDC has cited "unforeseen circumstances" as the reason for the postponement and Cllr Taylor, who has hired a solicitor and a barrister to fight his case, told Pulman's View there were two reasons for the postponement.

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedia.co.uk

The first being that the 'independent person' (a non-voting sub-committee member) could not make the meeting and the same excuse was levelled at EDDC's legal team.

The agenda issued for the the original meeting does not give any specific details about the allegations, and the meeting may be held behind closed doors.

Relevant reports and letters have not been made available to the public, and the agenda explained: "The sub-committee will make a decision at the meeting whether the hearing should be held in public or private session."

But Cllr Taylor said he and his legal team will push hard for the meeting to be held in public.

Despite a drastic shakeup, allegations of misconduct have dogged Honiton Town Council including a verbal attack on former mayor Peter Halse by his former deputy John Zarcynski.

Mr Zarcynski had claimed to have discovered a number of emails in the process of obtaining information for a key audit report, which he believes suggest details were intended to be kept from councillors.

In the audit report, which was carried out by the South West Audit Partnership, a series of failings in the council's management of the Beehive project were identified and it recommended sweeping changes to the way the council managed Beehive matters.

Among the report's main findings were: a significant weakness in internal control, poor chairmanship of meetings, a lack of forward planning and an effective committee structure and a failure to follow codes of conduct with regard to courtesy and respect.

It also found that council staff had been burdened with a heavy workload, putting them under extreme pressure and that the lack of an effective committee structure had led to confusion over key decisions.

Honiton Town Council announced last week that a 10 year lease had been granted to The Beehive, now that it had obtained charitable status.

Whilst the resolution to grant the lease was made in March, a condition had been specified which required the Honiton Community Complex to obtain charitable status before signing the lease.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

OTTERY ST MARY Hit and run injury during Tar Barrels

THE streets of Ottery were once again packed at the world-famous Tar Barrels event, however the evening was marred by an incident of hit and run involving a marshal.

The female volunteer was dragged down the road before falling onto the tarmac, sustaining a fracture in her right arm as a result and was taken to RD&E for treatment.

An altercation allegedly occurred between the driver of an Audi A3 and the marshal, resulting in the driver accelerating through the road closure.

The driver of the Audi, a 43-year-old local man was subsequently located by officers and he will be interviewed in due course.

Officers from the Serious Collision Investigation Unit are appealing for witnesses to this incident.

SIDMOUTH Car park barriers for Manor Road

EAST Devon District Council will put barriers at the front of the Manor Road car park – to try and curtail anti social behaviour in its premises.

At an EDDC council meeting, councillors decided that the suggested speed humps, originally proposed, would ultimately be a waste of time and money and instead decided on the more radical idea to install lockable barriers at the entrance and appropriate measures at the exits.

Sergeant Andy Squires, Community Policing Officer for Sidmouth, said: "The practicalities of catching someone who spends 30 seconds flying out of the car park with his wheels spinning is difficult. There needs to be a long-term solution."

From the editor's chair "Lest we forget"

TOWNS and villages throughout Pulman's Country paid homage on Sunday to the war dead in remembrance services and parades which attracted, in most locations, excellent attendances.

Although it is 70 years since the end of the last global conflict, the world remains a very dangerous and volatile place.

A day rarely passes without news of some atrocity which underlines the vigilance which nations have to maintain and which necessitates our Armed Services putting their lives at risk on a daily basis.

The remembrance weekend throws the spotlight on the essential work of the Royal British Legion, an organisation which rightly commands huge respect from the nation and whose role today is just as crucial as it ever was.

Regular readers of this column will know that I am a big supporter of the Legion. They do fantastic work, mostly in the community.

The Legion raises and spends millions of pounds every year, caring for serving and ex-service personnel and their families, much of which is financed through the annual Poppy Appeal which sees collectors who stand in all winds and weathers on street corners shaking their tins.

I did my stint in my home town and was amazed at the generosity and kindness of those who contributed, a good litmus test of what the people of this country feel about the Legion and the role our Armed Services continue to play throughout the world.

It is also heartening to see how many young people are now involved in remembrance events, which augurs well for the future of the Royal British Legion. They will not have to go to war as their grandfathers did – but they will be aware of the sacrifice made by so many in the cause of freedom.

AXMINSTER France honours ex RBL president

THE military achievements of Axminster resident John Glanvill-Smith has earned him the Legion d'honneur, one of France's highest decorations.

Mr Glanvill-Smith was a Second Lieutenant with The 1st Battalion of Royal Norfolk Regiment during the World War II Normandy Landings.

Ambassador of France to the UK, Sylvie Bermann, wrote to Mr Glanvill-Smith: "I have the pleasure of informing you that the President of the Republic has appointed you to the rank of Chevalier in the Ordre national de la Legion d'honneur. We must never forget heroes like you."

Last year the French government announced it wanted to recognise the heroism and determination of all surviving veterans of the Normandy landings, and of the wider 1944 campaigns to liberate France, with the Legion d'Honneur.

The Royal British Legion has worked with the Ministry of Defence to inform all D-Day veterans of their eligibility for the award.

SOUTH SOMERSET £5m costs rise for ageing population

SOMERSET's growing and ageing population will add around £5m to the county council's costs next year.

Council bosses stress that people living longer is something that should be celebrated, but it does bring a "demographic pressure", and residents are urged to support a campaign for fairer funding.

The county's population is growing by around 3,400 people a year and getting older. Estimates put the cost of this 'demographic pressure' at around £5m with inflation adding a further £3.5m to 2016/17 costs.

At the same time the authority faces major reductions in its direct funding from Government. By 2019/20 its direct funding from Government is expected to have fallen by around £63m.

Councillor Harvey Siggs, Cabinet Member for Resources, said: "We cannot ignore the fact that having more older residents poses a significant challenge. Reductions in funding mean some fundamental changes are needed."

EAST DEVON Local war veteran helps PM launch Poppy Appeal

A YOUNG war veteran, who was raised in East Devon, helped Prime Minister David Cameron launch the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal in London.

Lyndon Chatting-Walters was badly injured by an improvised explosive device in July 2008 in Afghanistan at the age of 18. He was blown 60 feet into a Taliban ambush position from his position as top gun cover in a vehicle.

He returned to the front line in 2010, but was medically discharged from the Army in 2013 because of his original injuries.

Lyndon is employed by Battle Back Rehabilitation Centre in Leeds, which is funded by the The Royal British Legion. The centre provides sports and activities for wounded, injured and sick service men and women from all the armed forces.

In addition to his role there, Lyndon has also qualified as a WWI Battlefield Tour Guide.

His mother Sharon, of Axminster, described his participation in the Poppy Appeal launch as "a proud mum moment".

SEATON Town council to buy 'Marshlands'

DEVON County Council has agreed to sell the Marshlands building in Harbour Road for a 'knockdown' £86,000 to Seaton Town Council.

Seaton town councillors unanimously resolved to acquire the building, and the price was revealed in a statement issued on Wednesday, November 4th.

The town council will use the former day care centre to serve the community in many ways, offering community and commercial opportunities to provide a range of provisions such as day care, educational and art facilities, room hire, youth facilities, catering opportunities, office space and a licensed ceremonies room.

The purchase cost will be met from the council's general reserves, and will not affect council tax bills.

Local groups make their pitch

by Peter Hodges

A 'DRAGONS' Den' style event has awarded several Honiton charitable organisations funding to help them carry on the good work they do.

Hosting the informal version of the hit TV show, was the collaborative community development programme Honiton Together – which is run by a partnership consisting of lead partner in the initiative East Devon District Council, Devon County Council and East Devon Volunteer Support Agency.

Honiton Youth Club took home first place – for the best pitch – as well as being awarded £750 for a portable ramp to make all of the Community Use Building Accessible.

The 'dragons' judging panel consisted of Devon County Councillor Sara Randall-Johnson, Big Lottery's Jenny Fish, DCC policy advisor Dave Slocombe and Greg Page-Turner from the Federation of Small Businesses.

The groups pitched not only in front of the judges, but also before an audience of around 30 people comprising of local voluntary and social sector organisations, social enterprises and charities as well as town, county and district councillors, including EDDC leader Paul Diviani whose locality budget contributed to the funding pot.

Cllr Diviani was also very supportive of the event which will be running again next year.

Commenting on this year's event he said: "It was wonderful to hear directly from these local groups who will be working hard to spend this money in a truly charitable way."

"The idea behind Honiton Together was for local organisations across Honiton to collaborate and support each other, as well as inspire positive local action. If in this way better solutions are developed for these issues, so much the better. I am delighted that everyone who pitched has received funding."

Cllr Randall-Johnson, who also contributed to the funding pot through her locality budget, said: "I am pleased that this important initiative has run for a second year, and I would like to see it continue with the wider support from the local community, including Honiton Town Council."

Other organisations that received funding included: Honiton Netball Club, which was awarded £350; Honiton Youth Orchestra, who were awarded £680 to help enable musicians from lower income families to attend a residential weekend of practice and performance.

Finally, The Beehive was awarded £680 towards new microphones for the complex.

MEMBERS of Honiton Youth Club make their pitch

New benefits system

CONTROVERSIAL welfare benefit Universal Credit is now available in Honiton as part of the national roll out that the government are dubbing a "revolution".

Universal Credit can be claimed at Honiton's job-centre and is the new benefit that some MP's say simplifies the welfare system and incentivises jobseekers to find work.

It is designed to replace six existing benefits with one monthly payment, and for the first time will combine in and out of work benefits.

The new system will focus on the number of hours a person works rather than the amount they earn, removing the need to switch between benefits when working more than 16 hours a week.

Universal credit will eventually replace Jobseekers Allowance, Working Tax Credits, Child Tax Credits and Housing Benefit.

News briefs

Millennium Green AGM

THE Millennium Green AGM will take place on Thursday, November 19th at the Honiton Tourist Information Centre at 7pm.

The Millennium Green is a small public park alongside the Upper Glen between Church Hill, Waterleat Avenue and Pine Park Road.

The green was created between 1999 and 2001 with money provided by the government under the nationwide Millennium Greens Scheme, with contributions from East Devon District Council and Honiton Town Council. Everyone is welcome to attend the meeting.

Complete Meats is top dog for sausages!

SOMERSET and Devon butcher Complete Meats has been awarded the top prize in this year's British Sausage Week competition.

The butcher's Pork & Otter Ale sausage won the independent retailer category before picking up the overall title, with judges praising the mix of lightly-seasoned West Country quality assured pork with locally-brewed ale from Ottery Brewery near Honiton.

Complete Meats, which has branches in Axminster, Honiton and Chard, was awarded the accolade at a ceremony in London hosted by British Sausage Week ambassador and renowned chef Michel Roux Jr.

Owner Shaun Vining said: "We are in shock to be awarded this accolade for our sausage. The room was full of the best sausage makers in the country and to be awarded Best British Butchers Sausage is truly an honour. We are frantically making Pork & Otter Ale sausages for all of our customers to enjoy!"

Patrick McCaig, sales and marketing director of Otter Brewery, added: "This really is the best of East Devon on a plate! Otter Head has something of a cult following in the beer world and has itself been a national winner at the Great Taste Awards. Now as an ingredient in Britain's Best Butchers Sausage it can be enjoyed by a whole new set of fans."

"The rich flavour is a perfect match, bringing a touch of malt, fruit and sweetness to the meat. Our beer is made in the nearby Blackdown Hills so this really is 'keeping it local' at its best."

Keith Fisher, butchery development manager for AHDB Pork and head judge, said: "The innovative pork sausage from Complete Meats stood out for all the right reasons. It scored top marks across the board, including taste, texture, appearance and cooking and eating quality. They absolutely deserve the top spot."

Mr Fisher praised all the entrants to the competition. "With sausage pride running high, the competition to mark the 18th annual British Sausage Week was particularly fierce, with only the very best pork sausages making it onto the 2015 roll of honour," he said.

More hospital bed closures on the way

A LEAKED letter has revealed that hospital bed closures are planned for Sidmouth, Seaton, Honiton and Ottery St Mary.

The closures are said to be temporary and part of a 15-bed package also affecting community hospitals in Exmouth and Exeter.

Sidmouth, Seaton and Honiton will each see two beds close, whilst the figure is three for Ottery, the letter reveals.

In addition, the Minor Injuries Unit in Sidmouth will also close temporarily.

Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (NDHT), which manages the hospitals, did not inform Pulman's View, but the details are in a leaked letter to stakeholders, dated November 2nd.

NDHT Chief Executive Dr Alison Diamond wrote: "We have had a spending limit (cap) on the amount of our budget that we can spend on agency staff imposed."

"We do not have permission to breach this limit and therefore were required to consider how we temporarily reconfigure our services in the safest possible way."

"Our approach was to explore only those proposals that maintained quality of care, adressed the risks of over-reliance on agency staff and which had the least impact on patients and our clinical workforce."

"It is important to note that these are temporary and urgent, in that they will be reversed in March 2016 and that we continue to recruit to our vacant clinical posts."

"So far the trust has spent £5million on nursing agency in six months, compared to £6million for the whole of last year."

"Our agency hotspots are mostly in the community hospitals."

The benefits of Reflexology, a FREE talk for Wishing Well cancer support group given by Barbara Bell – Thursday 12th November 2.30pm REFLEXOLOGY is one of the most popular types of complementary therapy in the UK amongst people with cancer. It involves applying pressure and massage, most commonly to the feet. According to reflexologists, you have reflex areas in your feet that match every part of your body.

A reflexologist will gently press your feet to assess your state of health. Pressing these areas is thought to start the healing process, working on energy pathways similar to those used in acupuncture. Therapists think that you become ill when energy pathways are blocked, and unblocking them can restore energy and balance.

There is some evidence that reflexology can help those with cancer. One patient reported that "as well as helping with nausea, it takes my mind off what I'm going through and I can just totally relax".

It is believed that as well as being relaxing it may help to ease pain, improve sleep and reduce nausea and stress levels, therefore generally boosting overall wellbeing.

Barbara Bell is an experienced reflexologist. Having experienced her own cancer journey, she has a deep understanding of what patients are going through at this difficult time. She will be giving a talk on the subject and will also be happy to demonstrate, as well as to talk about her own experiences.

Due to a generous grant from Macmillan we are currently able to offer free treatments to cancer patients attending our group sessions. This money is limited and so the offer will be available only until the funds are depleted. We are constantly fund-raising and applying for grants to replenish this bursary. If anyone would like to donate or fund raise for this worthy cause then please get in touch with the Centre. We welcome volunteers who can help in any way.

Wishing Well meets weekly on Thursday afternoons from 2.30-4.30 at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre. We provide a safe space to meet, chat, have a drink and relax as well as many interesting talks and workshops.

If you'd like any more information or to be added to our mailing list please contact us on 01297 444951 or email info@axminsterwellbeing.com – or just come along on a Thursday afternoon.

Reputable Luxy Locks Hair Salon has moved to a prominent location in Seaton town centre and there is now an added bit of Sparkle!

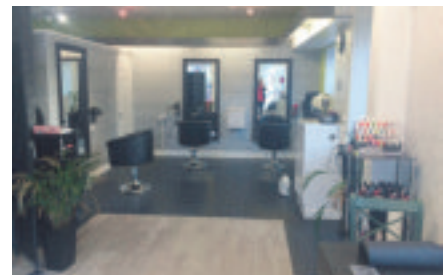

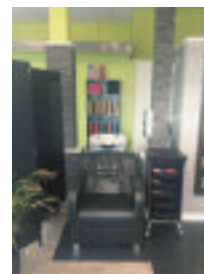

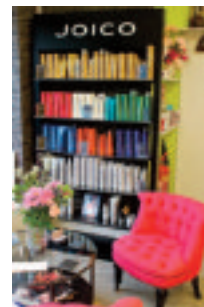

▲ Amie & Tara

AMIE Spurgeon has eight years experience in hairdressing, gaining many qualifications along the way. Keen to keep up to date with various techniques Amie retrained with a well-known chain salon and picked up even more skills. Amie has also been educated with Joico since 2008, a hair care brand that promotes 'healthy hair as happy hair'. Realising her dream of owning her own salon, Amie opened the doors to Luxy Locks in 2014 building a successful business solely from referrals and recommendations which is a testament to her customer service. A bigger salon became a necessity due to the success, so to be able to expand and grow the business in all areas Amie snapped up the desirable town centre premises in October this year. Now Luxy Locks can offer more services including Makeovers, Nail Services, Eyebrow Shaping and Tanning. Products used and available to buy include Joico Hair Care, New CID Cosmetics and Sienna X Tanning. Amie offers a 'Recommend a Friend' discount, when you share your experience with a friend a 15% discount is offered to you both, on their initial appointment and your next.

The previous location for Luxy Locks was somewhat tucked away and many potential customers missed the little hidden gem; since moving Amie is busier than ever!

Tara Peters of the popular Sparkles Hair Design is now based at Luxy Locks. Tara has 17 years experience in hairdressing and has had a varied career working for local salons until she set up her own business nine years ago. Working solely for and by herself for those years has meant Tara has built up a loyal customer base with clients travelling from all over East Devon for appointments. Working with Amie was an opportunity not to be missed! Together as friends in the centre of Seaton, this brave new venture has been met with enthusiasm from both client bases. The two stylists are certainly a dynamic duo who warmly welcome clients both old and new.

Remembrance Sunday coverage by Anders Larsson, Francesca Evans, Lottie Welch, Peter Hodges, Fiona Monk, Gary Tanner, Steve Gage & Phyllis Baxter

RESIDENTS descended on Minster Green for Remembrance Sunday in Axminster. Axminster Royal British Legion member Mervyn Symes co-ordinated events, starting with a parade from South Street Car Park to Minster Green. The names of the fallen were read by Mr Symes, the Exhortation was delivered by Axminster RBL President Ken Brake and the Kohima Epitaph by former branch president John Granvill-Smith. Mr Granvill-Smith was also presented with Legion d'honneur. The award was given by the French government for Mr Granvill-Smith's participation in the liberation of France, and presented by MP Neil Parish. Wreaths were laid at the war memorial and the following service was taken by The Reverend Geoffrey Walsh, who is the RBL Axminster chaplain.

■ ILMINSTER'S Service of Remembrance on Sunday drew in large crowds as the town paid their respects to the fallen.

The service was led by Reverend Nigel Done, the preacher was Basil Postlethwaite from St Joseph's and the prayers were said by Anna Flindell, Reverend at the Methodist Church.

The Royal British Legion standard was carried by Ilminster Air Cadets Jamie Cullam. Churchwarden John Robson read the Exhortation and MP Marcus Fysh and Ilminster Mayor Councillor Rose Neave read the lessons during the service. Instead of reading the names of the fallen, a poppy was placed of the war memorial for each person whose name appears on it.

The remembrance ceremony began and ended with a parade through the streets of Ilminster, led by a brass band. The 2381 Ilminster Air Cadets, Guides, Scouts, Beavers and Brownies all took part in the procession.

■ MAYOR of Axminster, Councillor Douglas Hull, lays a wreath at the war memorial. Left, the procession marches down South Street

■ THE local police were among those to lay wreaths at Colyton

The rain stopped just in time for Honiton's Remembrance Sunday parade from the New Street car park to St Paul's Church.

Parade Master Mick Robson took charge and crowds lined the route.

The service was taken by The Reverend Jane Lankester, and Parade Master Robson delivered the roll on honour and Exhortation, whilst the Kohima Epitaph was said by Chris Sinden of Honiton Royal British Legion.

Following the service, wreaths were laid by the Royal British Legion Honiton branch, and Women's Section, the town and district councils, MP Neil Parish and several military and local groups and organisations.

■ COLYTON honoured its war dead on Sunday morning with its annual Remembrance service and wreath laying at St Andrew's Church.

The service was led by the Reverend Hilary Dawson, assisted by associate minister John Lees. Chairman of the Royal British Legion Colyton branch, Michael Gurton, read the roll of honour and the Exhortation and Kohima Epitaph were delivered by children from the 1st Colyton Scouts and Brownies.

Following the service, wreaths were laid at the newly-refurbished war memorial in the church grounds, with work on it having been completed this week.

Those to lay wreaths included representatives from the Royal British Legion, Colyton Parish Council, Colyton Chamber of Feoffees, Colyton and District Probud Club, St John Ambulance, the police, fire service and the 1st Colyton Guides and Scouts.

An Armistice Day service and two minutes' silence will also be held at the war memorial at 11am on Wednesday, November 11th.

■ THE parade gets underway in Honiton led by the Royal British Legion

RESIDENTS of Seaton gathered outside St Gregory's Church on Remembrance Sunday to pay their respects to those who have lost their lives in combat.

The Reverend Jeremy Trew began the service next to the war memorial, as the names of the fallen were read by Maurice Ayling. Wreaths were then laid, starting with East Devon district councillor Jim Knight representing MP Neil Parish, followed by Seaton Mayor, Councillor Tony Woodman, who laid the wreath on behalf of the town council. Seaton Rotary Club, Devon and Cornwall Police, Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue, Seaton Brownies and Seaton Scouts also laid wreaths.

Members of Seaton Brownies and Beavers then laid poppies at the headstones of those that served in the two world wars also.

Senior Scout Benjamin Jones read the Exhortation and Royal British Legion chairman, Derek Payne, sounded the Last Post.

The congregation then moved inside for the remembrance service.

A service was also held in Beer with wreaths being received at the village's war memorial by Edward Weatherall. The local Scouts were among those to take part.

■ THE parade of war veterans, ex-servicemen and military organisations makes its way to Sidmouth Parish Church. Below, standards are lowered outside the church and, right, Councillor Jeff Turner, chairman of Sidmouth Town Council, lays the council's wreath

HUNDREDS of residents, local ex-servicemen and organisations joined together on Sunday in an act of remembrance, to honour all those servicemen who have given their lives at war.

A parade through the town - led by the Sidmouth Town Band and John Haynes, the Sidmouth Royal British Legion macebearer - and church service were held to mark the occasion.

War veterans, ex-servicemen, members of the Sidmouth Royal British Legion (RBL) and other local groups and organisations made their way through the town to Sidmouth Parish Church.

A service was held in the churchyard in which organisations laid wreaths, starting with the Reverend Philip Bourne on behalf of the church. Kim Smith, president of Sidmouth RBL, read the Exhortation and laid the wreath on behalf of the branch, with Dave O'Connor, chairman of Sidmouth RBL, reading the Kohima Epitaph.

The Reverend Philip Borne read the 14 names of men from Sidmouth who had lost their lives serving their country. This was followed by a service in the church.

■ RESIDENTS of Ottery St Mary paid their respects to those that lost their lives in combat at Sunday's Remembrance Service.

The Reverend Stephen Weston led the service and the sermon was given by Ottery curate Leisa McGovern. The Mayor, Councillor Glyn Dobson, read a Bible passage and Hazel Abley gave the Exhortation.

At the end of the service, the congregation left the church and gathered around the war memorial for the laying of the wreaths.

■ THE local Scout troop were among those taking part in remembrance events in Ottery St Mary

Charity needs unwanted discs, games and books

HOSPISCARE is urgently appealing to Pulman's readers to donate CDs, DVDs, PC games and books, so it can stock up its charity shops in time for the big Christmas rush.

The local charity needs £6.1m to run its vital services and is hoping to raise £30,000 from this appeal which will help hundreds of terminally people and their families living across Exeter, East and Mid Devon.

The donated items will be sold in Hospiscare's 19 shops and online from the charity's retail warehouse, the Hospiscare En-

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedial.co.uk

terprise Centre in Marsh Barton.

Helen Hutter, Hospiscare head of retail, said: "We're urgently asking Pulman's readers to help us. We've already had a good response from Hospiscare staff and volunteers, local people and businesses, now we're directly asking Pulman's readers if they can sort out their unwanted entertainment goods and hand them into us before the middle of November, so we can be ready for the big Christmas rush.

"We are so grateful for the goods already given and would really appreciate more to help us reach our target and continuing giving great, expert care to local people."

Please donate at your nearest Hospiscare shop or at the Hospiscare Enterprise Centre in Trusham Road, Marsh Barton, EX2 8RB. Tel 01392 421289 or email: ebay@hospiscare.co.uk

Police appeal over Seaton offense

POLICE would like to find and question the driver of a black car, with a broken wing mirror, following an incident in Seaton.

Details about the incident have not been disclosed, but a force spokesperson said: "We are trying to locate the owner of a black four-door saloon car with a broken driver side wing mirror, which was described as hanging off.

"The driver was described as having grey hair, worn in a pony tail, and is wanted in connection with an offence that took place in the Seaton area on Thursday, October 29th.

"Anyone recognising this vehicle and its owner is asked to call 101, email: 101@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111, quoting crime ref 75188/15."

■ APPEAL: Karen Skye, Derek Parsons and Sophie Neale with examples of the type of donations for which Hospiscare is appealing

Seaton seafront questionnaire results

ALMOST 400 people took the chance to have a say on plans for Seaton seafront.

A model of a proposed multi-million seafront project was on public display in Seaton Library, and 370 people completed a questionnaire.

Three years ago Seaton Town Council was appointed as lead authority for a project to draw up a master plan for the seafront and parts of The Esplanade and Marine Place.

The town council was asked by East Devon District Council (EDDC) and Seaton Regeneration Board to lead the project.

The model that went on public display is a result of that process, and organisers said that plans to enhance the seafront received strong support in the public consultation.

A total of 370 people, almost all of them Seaton residents according to the town council, responded to the questionnaire.

Of those who answered each question, 96.5 per cent agreed that the seafront "needs investment and enhancement", 88.6 per cent said "the proposals will improve the seafront", and 65.6 per cent thought the seafront "should be fully pedestrianised" rather than a "shared pedestrian/vehicular surface".

Most of those opposed to the enhancement scheme opposed full pedestrianisation.

There was widespread enthusiasm for events to be held at the revamped Fisherman's Gap, with over half the respondents writing in particular types of events which they would like to see, ranging from festivals, markets, food and children's events to music, various sports, and a Sunday bookstall.

A town council spokesperson said: "Respondents wanted the seafront to promote boats and watersports. Many also wanted there to be strong promotion of all the attractions and shops in the rest of the town, with good maps and signage.

"The proposals will now be re-examined by the town council and the architects in the light of these results.

"Specific suggestions for improvements were made, popular ones including more seating and toilets, better lighting, a jetty, more planting and a sandy area, as well as ideas like extending the tramway to the seafront which is unfortunately outside the scope of the scheme.

"These and other points expressed will be considered before a planning application is prepared."

Getting planning permission is pivotal as it opens the door to apply for major grants.

Beer footpath 'CSI' mystery deepens

THE mystery over the 'CSI'-looking police team that have been scouring the footpath above Jubilee Gardens deepened this week.

A team of four police officers clad in black jumpsuits were in the village last week with digging tools as they cleared an area of the South West coastal footpath leading east out of the village in the direction of Seaton.

Enquiries to the Devon and Cornwall Police press office drew a blank though new Community Beat Manager Richard Jenkins offered a tantalising glimpse of what the team may have been up to in his monthly report Beer Parish Council.

"Someone out walking their dog found something so officer have been up there doing some digging related to a former case and that is all I can say at the moment," said PC Jenkins.

The end of time for art installation

AN AMBITIOUS art installation at Honiton's Thelma Hulbert Gallery has helped the venue to its best ever week.

Over 700 people visited the spectacular installation, called 'Harrison's Garden' featuring 1,000 clocks, was part of the national Museums at Night festival and saw many of the clocks donated by the general public.

Gallery curator Angela Blackwell praised the public support which saw clock donations pouring into the gallery.

She said: "We were overwhelmed by the public's generosity in supporting our call for clocks for this installation.

"Many of those who donated, came to see their clocks in the installation and participated in a really exciting week of activities, talks and workshops."

Nationally acclaimed artist Luke Jerram said the week had been epic but great fun.

"I really enjoyed working with the Thelma Hulbert Gallery. Museums at Night gave me an opportunity to create a new artwork and test it out. And it went like clockwork!"

"If the installation tours the UK, I hope that Harrison's Garden will grow, with more and more clocks being added to the collection. I hope to eventually get 10,000 clocks for display."

"I'd like to also thank the public for their support and of course their wonderful, and often, curious clock donations," Luke said.

To celebrate the Museums at Night festival, THG held a talk by Luke and a spectacular Halloween event, which included kids' art activities, music from a DJ, pop up cocktail bar and woodfired pizza oven.

Men's open evening at surgery

HONITON Patient Participation Group are hosting a Men's Open Evening at the surgery on Wednesday, November 18th, starting at 7pm.

The purpose of the evening, held at Honiton Surgery, is to promote an awareness of conditions which particularly, although not exclusively, affect men.

Doctors and fellow professionals from the surgery will be giving presentations on such subjects as diabetes, obesity, prostate cancer, cardiovascular conditions and abdominal aortic aneurysms.

In addition, there will be several stands providing information, including smoking cessation, exercise, back problems and a travel health clinic.

The medical staff will be willing to take questions on any health matters, not only those covered by the speakers, either publicly during the event, or privately after the presentations have been completed.

Serena Sexton, chairman of Honiton Surgery Patient Participation Group, said: "We really hope that this event will be well supported by the male patients at Honiton Surgery as men in general often do not know about conditions which will affect them, and put off going to see the doctor until it is too late.

"Early detection can lead to early diagnosis and treatment with more chance of a positive outcome.

"So we call upon all wives and girlfriends to 'encourage' their menfolk to attend, so they will be better informed and more likely to seek medical advice when symptoms arise"

Top athlete Jo Pavey to open Honiton's new day hospice

JO PAVEY MBE will officially open the Kings House Day Hospice in Honiton on Tuesday, November 17th.

Jo went to school in Honiton and lives locally, and Hospiscare are thrilled that she has agreed to open the £1.2m building.

The day hospice provides much needed services to terminally ill people and their families.

The hospice is already oversubscribed and they have started a new service to accommodate the many people wanting help.

The local Hospiscare community specialist nurses will also be based at Kings House, as well as a team of trained volunteers, care navigators who befriend and visit patients in their homes.

The new day hospice has been warmly welcomed by people in East Devon, who raised more than £260,000 towards the building.

■ HONITON Young Farmers Club have raised a total of £624.39 for Honiton's Kings House Day Hospice. The club fundraised throughout the last year with lots of different events, such as cream teas, bingo, raffle sales, cake sales, discos and many other events. Honiton YFC is a charity run club that raise money for different charities each year, and they are currently looking at which charity to choose for 2016.

Queen writes to thank Honiton Beavers

IN SEPTEMBER, when Honiton Beavers returned to scouting after the summer holidays, they decided to honour HRH Queen Elizabeth II for becoming the longest reigning monarch in British history by making her special cards.

The Jose and Leonard Beavers and Honiton First Scout Group have now received a letter from Buckingham Palace thanking them for the kind gesture.

The letter, from Lady-in-Waiting Jennifer Gordon-Lennox, reads: "The Queen wishes me to thank you for the colorful cards you have sent on the occasion of Her Majesty becoming the longest reigning Monarch in British history.

"The Queen was pleased to hear from you and, although Her Majesty does not have time to reply personally to all the hundreds of people who write to her each day, The Queen greatly appreciated your kind messages.

"Her Majesty is most grateful for your good wishes, and thanks you so much for your thoughtfulness in writing as you did."

Big turnout for memory cafe's AGM

HONITON Memory Cafe's 5th AGM garnered a fantastic turnout as over 70 people attended the meeting.

Chairman Heather Penwarden welcomed visitors including Honiton Town Councillor Graham Smith, Neil Hurlock and Robin Essame from TRIP and Louisa Littlewood, Community Champion from Tesco.

Heather reported on all the activities of the Memory Cafe over the past 12 months including cafe meetings, the Pub Lunch Club, short mat bowling, theatre outings and the start of the monthly Memory

Café walking group.

Honiton Community College Sixth Form volunteers Ben Willis and Yazz Hoyle shared with the group how much they have enjoyed their past year helping at the memory cafe and how much they have learned about what it is like living with dementia.

Ben said: "I was a bit nervous about coming along the first time but this is definitely the best thing I have done all year."

Heather went on to pay tribute to all the volunteers who help make the memory cafe run so smoothly and presented flowers of thanks to Min Rennolds café coordinator. Thanks were also given to Alf Boom who after six years is stepping down as the cafe's treasurer.

David Lewis was welcomed on to the committee as the new treasurer along with Ann Mitchell as a Carers and Friend rep. The rest of the committee were voted on for a further 12 months.

Heather concluded the AGM by maintaining that the aim of the memory cafe is to provide a safe and friendly social environment for people living with dementia including their friends and families. All the activities offered are about promoting the value of mutual support and friendship, stimulating memory and most importantly having fun.

Alan Morris gave a vote of thanks to the volunteers on behalf of all the friends of the memory cafe saying how it was like being in a "big, friendly and supportive family".

Heather then introduced guest speaker Neil Hurlock, manager of TRIP, who gave a useful and informative talk on the wide ranging services provided by Honiton's extensive community transport service.

Conan Doyle's connections to Devon

THE Honiton U3A saw more than 80 members and visitors attend the October meeting at the Beehive, when local historian Sarah Obermuller-Bennet was welcomed to give a talk on the life and times of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and his connections with Devon.

Conan Doyle, born in Edinburgh in 1859 qualified as a doctor and it was his medical profession that brought him to Devon for the first time in 1882, at the invitation of a university friend George Budd with whom he set up practice in Plymouth.

However, the partnership did not last and Conan Doyle moved to Southsea.

The audience learnt that the idea for Doyle's famous Sherlock Holmes story of "The Hound of the Baskervilles", was conceived in Norfolk during a golfing weekend with his friend Bertram Fletcher Robinson. The weekend was washed out by rain and thus their conversations turned to legends one of which was that of a black hound.

Robinson, who lived at Ipplepen, introduced Doyle to Dartmoor and its atmospheric locations, which became the inspiration for the setting of his book.

Doyle was a great sportsman and enjoyed boxing, golf, football, skiing and especially cricket. He played for the MCC and is famous for bowling out no other than WG Grace. It was cricket that brought him back to Devon in August 1902 when he is recorded as playing for the MCC touring side in a match against Sidmouth. Whilst in Sidmouth he and his family stayed at The Royal York Hotel.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's life is a vast subject and it was brought very much to life in Sarah's lively, informative and often amusing presentation for which she was warmly thanked by the U3A chairman, Susanne Jones.

Silence for much loved RBL member

THE annual general meeting of Axminster RBL Women's Section took place in October when a minute's silence was held in memory of Eileen Maeer, a staunch member for many years, who passed away recently.

A number of members will be attending the funeral at the minster and the RBL Standard Bearer will also be in attendance.

Eileen will be sadly missed by so many who knew her and this also applies to so many people in the town whom she served over a great number of years.

Treasurer, Stella Brown, informed the meeting that £2,000 had been sent to head office for their ongoing welfare work, especially with widows and orphans, from past and present conflicts.

As a result of the members' hard work throughout the year, Axminster was awarded the Devonshire Cup, for the second year running, from RBL Women's Section Devon County for small branch donations year ending June 2015.

Axminster were also runners up for branch efficiency (small branch) for the same period of time.

Chairman Lesley Frankau thanked all the members for their hard work in her annual report and following the election of officers and committee, welcomed Christine Goodwill and Helen Pettit to serve as committee members. A vote of thanks was given to Phyl Jones for her work over the years with the refreshments, following her decision to stand down and to Pat Powell, Vice-Chairman who has been a mainstay over the years. Her replacement is Penny Daglish who was voted on by members.

Jean Copp has also stood down from running the monthly draw at meetings, thanks for her dedication over the years was given. Jill Banfield will take her place.

Special thanks were given to Jane Bastin who organises the Christmas lunch every year at Hunter's Lodge and provides the bacon butties at the coffee mornings in the Church Rooms. Menus were handed out at the meeting and copies will also be sent to the branch who will be joining, as in past years.

Demonstration from well-known artist

SEATON Art Society enjoyed a demonstration by the well-known artist Mary-Ann McKenzie, daughter of a famous artist and respected tutor at the Old Pavilion, Honiton.

She was pointing out how when people view a painting their eye is immediately drawn to any white highlights. If the artist knows this, they can of course then use that to their advantage. But the thing is to start with just a swirl of mixed colours.

Gradually other colours and shapes are added and through the added colour the underpainting will shine through, perhaps almost imperceptibly, but nevertheless adding subtlety and beauty to the work.

Of course it was not enough just to tell the members of Seaton and District Art Society this, when they met in Seaton Town Hall, but she proceeded to show them, using at first pastels and later acrylics.

Mary Ann was warmly thanked by the members for her enthusiastic and inspiring approach.

Before the club left, Carol Manley of Seaton Voice reminded them of the Seaton Town Hall situation, and asked for their support in keeping the hall open for the community.

Of course the club agreed that it was delighted with the hall and certainly hoped it would remain as a venue for their meetings.

Garden society talk on ferns

AFTER last month's Pumpkin evening, Colyton & District Garden Society rounds off its 2015 lectures with a talk from Peter Savage of Bowdens Nursery.

Peter will talk to members about ferns in which the nursery, from Sticklepath near Okehampton, specialises.

The talk is at Colyton Peace Memorial Hall on Wednesday, November 18th at 7.30pm.

Next month the society will meet for its Christmas party and the 2016 programme starts on January 20th, with a talk on Roses.

No rights of way into the public park

■ IN 2012 a local resident and I, hearing that the Council intended to sell off much of Knowle's public park and gardens for private housing, applied to register rights of way into the public gardens, fearing that access might be denied.

The government Inspector has now ruled that, because the public has used these access paths 'by right' (not 'as of right'), legal public rights of way into the park cannot be established. The result is that there is now no legal guarantee that the public will be able to access the public park as the land concerned will belong to the private developer, PegasusLife. The latter have said they will allow 'permissive' paths into the park but what if those who buy the retirement homes object? Will Knowle become a private estate like The Laurels? It is also interesting to see that PegasusLife have drilled for soil samples well down the lawned terraces, presumably because they hope to build there, across the footpaths claimed by the public.

One is also forced to ask why EDDC spent so much Council Tax payers' money hiring an expensive London planning barrister to stop legal rights of way into a public park. Is this yet another example of a Council serving the 'needs' of private developers rather than the needs of the community?

Pride in poppies

■ THE Royal British Legion Poppy Day is on 8th November.

We all know how much and how many depend on The Royal British Legion and a successful Poppy Day Appeal.

The need for help is still as great as ever and we need to show our support for all members of the Armed Forces, retired members and their families.

Devon has always given generously. I am confident this year we will all "wear our Poppy with pride" – and with thankfulness.

COUNCILLOR CHRISTINE CHANNON,
Chairman of Devon County Council

MP's vote to keep tampon tax a 'disgrace'

■ AFTER voting to keep VAT on sanitary products (the so-called Tampon Tax), I would very much like Neil Parish MP to prove to me he's not a misogynist. What possible reason could he, and his government, have to keep such an unfair tax on 50 per cent of the population?

Women don't use sanitary products because they want to spoil themselves and treat themselves.

They use them to keep themselves healthy, for a better quality of life and to prevent social stigma during menstruation.

I'm ashamed of Neil Parish. To have this kind of prejudice in 2015 is an utter disgrace. He should hang his head in shame.

Great opportunities for Woodroffe Sixth Formers

LIFE in the Woodroffe School Sixth Form offers a great number of new opportunities for students to get involved with, from visits to New York and Paris to scaling the heights of Snowdon, they are making the most of it all. For example, here is an account of a recent field trip to Roche Court Sculpture Park by the A Level Art group:

"An unusually beautiful morning greeted the AS Art students on the last day of September for their visit to Roche Court, the lovely sculpture park in Salisbury.

"On arrival the students were whisked away on a tour of the park and provided with informed curatorship from their expert guide Josepha. They were able to broaden their contextual awareness and understanding as they were prompted about their own thoughts on the selected exhibits. These ranged from 30ft conjoined hares cast in bronze to more interactive pieces such as the fibreglass spaceship, which works wonderfully well as a lounge for fifteen.

"As the day went on the students were exposed to a broad range of works noting: the scale, placement, medium and intention of each artist who produced them. First hand observation of artwork is a vital part of the appreciation of it. The works were sketched and photographed enabling the students to enhance their recording skills and artistic experience. They also became more aware of their own subjectivity; they were asked if they actually liked the works, some found this a difficult question whereas others were less ambivalent and able to vocalise their opinions clearly and eloquently. The realisation that looking at art is a two-way activity and very much depends on the individuals' sensitivities and personal tastes soon became apparent.

"Ultimately the students were able to engage, asking pertinent questions and offering imaginative ideas about what the artworks meant to them. They were reflective and analytical in their deciphering of the visual clues offered by each piece.

"A relaxing lunchtime picnic was enjoyed on the grounds, followed by further observational sketching. A very successful trip and an absolute pleasure in such clement conditions."

Your mobility scooter specialist in East Devon and Dorset!

MARTIN welcomes browsers to his new showroom just on the edge of Seaton.

This new business in Seaton already has dozens of happy clients since the start of 2015, who have new-found freedom with their new mobility scooters to explore their town and locality.

Having plenty of parking and demonstration space, Martin welcomes visitors to the showroom, where new scooters can be tested nearby and under safety supervision.

In a relaxed atmosphere, Martin will demonstrate the latest mobility scooters from leading manufacturers, and give potential buyers more choice to buy exactly what they require.

Martin says:

"It is almost impossible to get satisfaction buying a scooter on the internet, because each client is different in their individual personal requirements. Our customers can be assured of the right product for their needs. In each case I talk the customer through every aspect of their purchase.

Once a sale is complete we will be here to help if they have any issues at all. We can take away a scooter for repair or service and usually lend the customer a courtesy scooter if required"

MO FACTS

Albert Einstein had a moustache for over 50 years.

Groucho Marx for many years wore a fake moustache of grease-paint on stage and film, then grew a real one later in life.

In 1967, The Beatles gave away cardboard moustaches with their album Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band.

U.S. Marines are not permitted to grow moustaches longer than half an inch.

The first artefact that shows a moustache dates back to 300 B.C. and depicts an ancient Iranian horseman with a thick black moustache.

The world's longest moustache is believed to be a 14ft monster belonging to Ram Singh Chauhan of Rajasthan, India, who regularly massages it with mustard and coconut oil to keep it healthy.

In a deck of cards, the King of Hearts is the only king not to have a moustache.

Police in a district in India's Madhya Pradesh state are being paid to grow moustaches because bosses believe it makes them command more respect.

A one month old moustache is capable of holding approximately 30ml of liquid or around 10% of a glass of beer before leaking its contents down the face of the owner.

Salvador Dalí published a book dedicated solely to his moustache.

On average a man with a moustache touches it 760 times a day. There are between 10,000 and 20,000 hairs on a man's face.

In Eureka, Nevada, USA, it is illegal for men who have moustaches to kiss women.

ABOUT MOVEMBER

THE Movember Foundation is the leading global organisation committed to changing the face of men's health.

The Movember Foundation is a global charity committed to men living happier, healthier, longer lives. Since 2003, millions have joined the men's health movement, raising £402 million and funding over 1,000 programmes focusing on prostate cancer, testicular cancer, poor mental health and physical inactivity.

The Movember Foundation challenges men to grow moustaches during Movember (formerly known as November), to spark conversation and raise vital funds for its men's health programs. From humble beginnings back in 2003 the Movember movement has grown to be a truly global one, inspiring support from over 5 million Mo Bros and Mo Sistas.

The Movember Foundation wouldn't be where it is without the enthusiasm of all of those men and women around the globe.

HOW FUNDS ARE RAISED

FUNDS are raised through the Foundation's annual awareness campaign, Movember, which sees the sprouting of millions of moustaches around the world, during the month previously known as November.

At the start of Movember, guys take action by signing up with a clean-shaven face and for the 30 days of November commit to growing a moustache. These selfless and generous men are known as Mo Bros, and groom, trim and wax their way into the annals of fine moustachery. Mo Bros are supported by the women in their lives, affectionately known as Mo Sistas - together, our Mo Community raise money and awareness to change the face of men's health.

With the sprouting of a new moustache, Mo Bros effectively become walking, talking billboards for the month; and like a run or walk for charity, they use their hairy ribbon to spark conversations around the often ignored issue of men's health and seek funds to support the work of the Movember Foundation.

At the end of the month, the Movember community celebrates their Mo growing efforts, either by joining us at one of the official Movember Gala Parties, held around the world, or by hosting their own end of month event with colleagues, friends or community groups.

SINCE relatively humble beginnings back in 2003 in to enter a new market if there is an existing strong groundswell of support. Word of mouth, the movement of expats and the incredible power of the internet have all contributed to the campaign stretching out across the globe. The geographic expansion supports and delivers on our primary objective of spreading key health messages to men everywhere.

The idea for Movember actually started with a conversation between mates, so there's a nice synergy to the fact that today it's conversation that is central to achieving our goals. That one conversation back in 2003 has today grown into billions, taking place around the world.

- Be prepared. Before your first follicle breaks through the surface, choose the type of moustache that will grace your face by reviewing the inspirational Movember Mo Style Guide.
- Invest in the right tools for the job. A man committed to serious moustachery should have the following: a pair of barber scissors for precise trimming, a set of clippers for uniformity, a fine-toothed comb for guidance, a large mirror for a good view, a trusty razor, a steady hand and a determined mind.
- Dampen the moustache hair to trim - wet hair is easier to cut, but dry hair easier to trim. It is important to note that wet hair does bounce up when dry. You've been warned.

- Using a fine-toothed comb, gently rake your moustache so the hairs all run in one direction. Rein in any strays that walk to the beat of their own drum.
- Using the barber scissors, trim the long or stray hairs on the outer edge and bottom line of your moustache. You may wish to use your comb to restrain your Mo while you snip away. Remember to trim conservatively - you can always go over it again.
- Run the clippers over the body of the Mo to get a consistent and even level of bush and bounce.
- Foam up, then run a sharp razor along the outer edge and make that Mo stand out.
- For more outlandish styles, use a fine and appropriate moustache wax to shape the remaining hair into place.

Annual tree of light ceremony

THE festive season kicks off this year at Antiques Bazaar, Crewkerne with the annual tree lighting ceremony in conjunction with Crewkerne Lions Club. Once again, Crewkerne Lions Club are presenting the "TREE OF LIGHT" offering local residents the opportunity to sponsor a light in memory of a loved one no longer with us. The massive tree will be prominently displayed outside Antiques Bazaar on the corner of Kithill. Crewkerne Lions Club are an active and friendly group who raise £1,000'S every year for worthwhile causes. Antiques Bazaar and Crewkerne Lions Club have a long-standing relationship, and whilst not being a Lion himself, Antiques Bazaar proprietor Anthony Bucke regularly hosts events for Crewkerne Lions Club.

This year the TREE OF LIGHT will be lit at 6PM ON FRIDAY

4TH DECEMBER, accompanied by carol singing. Antiques Bazaar will remain open and complementary mulled wine and mince pies will be served throughout the evening.

To sponsor a light please complete the form on this page and send it with your sponsorship money to CREWKERNE LIONS C/O Clapton Farm, Crewkerne TA18 8PR or drop it into Antiques Bazaar.

Santa arrives on SATURDAY 5TH DECEMBER.....he will be in his grotto at ANTIQUES BAZAAR from 11 TIL 3. Bring along your youngsters for a bit of fun - £3 ENTRY and a gift for every child.

Fred McAulay's Twenty Fifteen at the Marine

ONE OF Scotland's best loved comedians and star of BBC Radio 4's The News Quiz, Bridget Christie Minds The Gap and The Unbelievable Truth, Fred McAulay, hits the Marine Theatre stage on Monday, November 16th.

In his first tour since 2012, Fred looks at his family life at home and looks forward to how his country will shape up after the referendum of 2014. As well as looking backwards and forwards, he'll probably look sideways at politics, sport, the environment and, without sounding too like a brief for a newspaper, there will undoubtedly be a colour supplement with a look at 'celebrity'.

2015 is a hugely significant year for the long-running BBC Scotland presenter. Back on the road again after 18 years at BBC Radio Scotland presenting the very funny and eventful MacAulay and Co., Fred's on air witticisms and on screen reputation are the product of years of experience on the live circuit, including a stint as the first ever-Scottish compere at the Comedy Store in London. He is a regular favourite at the Edinburgh Fringe (this year will be his 27th!).

He has a string of TV appearances under his sporran, from Mock the Week, QI and Have I Got News For You to a guest-spot on The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson in the US. He has presented many programmes for the BBC, including McCoist and MacAulay, Life According to Fred, Hoots, Simply Fred, Scots on the Box and On The Road with Martell Maxwell, and he lasted 7 out of 11 nights when he sang on Comic Relief Does Fame Academy! He has also guest-starred on various Radio 4 panel shows such as I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue, Just A Minute, The Unbelievable Truth and is a regular panelist on The News Quiz.

Fred McAulay performs at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Monday, November 16th at 8.00pm Tickets are £14 or £12, and a Theatre-Friends discount is available. The show is suitable for ages 16+. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Django goes Dutch

IT'S BEEN described as 'the most breathtaking instrumental show you'll hear this year' and has wowed audiences across Europe. Now it's Ilminster's turn to be enthralled by award-winning Dutch violinist Tim Kliphuis and his high-energy blend of classical, gypsy jazz and folk music.

Tim Kliphuis is a legend in the world of gypsy music: a classically trained violinist who made his name playing with the fiery European gypsy guitarists. He is widely regarded as the heir to Stéphane Grappelli but his style is very much his own. A master of improvisation, Tim creates a sound that is totally unique and Time Out has described him as "prodigiously talented, fearsomely fast and fun".

Formed in 2005, the Trio also comprises guitarist Nigel Clark and Roy Percy on bass. All virtuosos in their own right, the three musicians are renowned for their electrifying performances and audience rapport. Their highly acclaimed programme "The Gypsy Seasons" weaves the music of Antonio Vivaldi, Django Reinhardt, Edward Grieg, Duke Ellington and Celtic traditionalists into a dazzling tapestry of moods, colours and grooves.

Tim Kliphuis has shared the stage with legends Frankie Gavin, Richard Galliano and Les Paul and has been lauded for his musical genius by Nigel Kennedy. In 2013, he was awarded the Scottish Jazz Award – International. An in-demand educator, Tim hosts the annual sell-out Grappelli-Django Camp in Holland every August.

Nigel Clark is a guitar virtuoso who has played the music of Django Reinhardt all his life and is one of the world's best exponents of "Django" style guitar. He has worked with the biggest names in jazz, folk and rock including Gloria Gaynor, Carol Kidd and Scottish band Hue and Cry.

Roy Percy's bass sound is rooted in New Orleans and Jump-Jive, injecting the Trio with raw street rhythms and infectious grooves. His unique bass slapping techniques, and his subtle dynamic feel, forge rhythms that are rich in emotion.

Come and enjoy an evening of gypsy magic at Ilminster Arts Centre!

The Tim Kliphuis Trio with Nigel Clark and Roy Percy perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Saturday, November 21st at 8pm. Tickets are £16, and a pre-show supper is available for £12 at 7pm but must be booked in advance. To book or for more details call 01460 54973.

For those about to rock!

WINSTON'S Bar and Grill, present Hells Bells – the no1 AC/DC tribute on Friday, November 13th.

Having been together for years they are regulars at festivals and arenas here and in Europe where they recently played to 30,000 people in Portugal. If you love AC/DC this is the band to see and we have support from Hellrazor and a Rock Disco. The boys are really looking forward to it, saying "We have known Chris for years and when he asked us to come and play we jumped at the chance".

Winston's manager Chris Oakes said "Hells Bells don't normally play small gigs, so this is a real coup for us".

Tickets went on sale last week priced at £10 in advance or are £13 on the night, a quarter of the tickets have already been sold.

Tickets can be bought at Winston's or at Beer village Stores and Axe Music in Axminster.

Don't miss out on what will be a cracking gig and don't forget to like our facebook page to get all the latest info on upcoming gigs for the rest of this year and 2016, especially our Christmas party in December featuring the Beach Boys band and the Ultimate 60s band.

Ye Olde Poppe Inn

Enjoy a festive tippie at Ye Olde Poppe Inn

WITH THE NIGHTS drawing in and winter fast approaching it is time to turn our minds to the Christmas party season, and when the evenings are cold and hazy there is no better place to warm your cockles and enjoy a festive tippie than Ye Olde Poppe Inn.

Open from 12pm to 12am everyday, Ye Olde Poppe Inn is the perfect place to find comfort in the cold, day or night. This quaint 15th Century public house not only offers local award winning West Country ales, but also deliciously hearty, home-cooked food which is served daily 12pm – 3pm, Monday to Saturday 5.30pm – 9pm and Sunday 5.30pm – 8pm.

Landlady Danni took over in April 2014 and with the support of the owner, Hall & Woodhouse, has invested a substantial amount of time to bring the pub up to its full potential. The most recent of these investments can be seen before you even walk through the door, with an impressive new thatched roof. With over 13 years experience in the hospitality industry Danni prides herself on hard work and creating an inviting, friendly atmosphere for all who step foot in the door.

If you're after a real West Country drink then Ye Olde Poppe Inn is just the place to visit as they have two permanent draughts of Badger Ale, which is brewed just over the border in Dorset. Not only that but you are spoilt for choice as there is also a Seasonal one to choose! There is plenty of room for a party at Ye Olde Poppe Inn with the skittle alley doubling as a spacious function room, and with Christmas just around the corner it's the perfect place to organize a jolly gathering as they have a lovely Christmas Menu.

Their facilities include a large car park and a beautiful beer garden to enjoy when the winter weather is mild, and being on the A358 the location is excellently situated for a visit when exploring the Jurassic Coast or a day out in the beautiful Somerset countryside.

Testimonials

"I had my wife's birthday party in the Poppe's skittle alley. We were greeted with a warm welcome from staff as well as the log burner (toasty warm). Great atmosphere, good food, great time. Thank you. We had lots of young kids and babies with us, so it was great to see baby changing facilities there. Good for family parties."

"Great food. Lovely staff. Very friendly welcoming Inn."

Banish the Sunday nights blues

NOTHING lifts the spirits like live music and in a break from its usual Friday night scheduling, Ilminster Arts Centre is hosting a Sunday night concert that's guaranteed to banish those 'back to work' blues.

The band that they've booked for this important job is the Josh Kemp Quartet, a critically acclaimed group of young musicians featuring Josh Kemp on saxophone, Tim Laphorn on piano, Mick Hutton on bass and Matt Skelton on drums.

Whether playing within the jazz standards tradition or presenting his own compositions, Josh Kemp's playing style combines melodic inventiveness, a rich tone and a lyrical style of improvisation. Time Out has praised his "laconic, subtle, highly nuanced and original sound" while Jazz UK relished Josh's "polished, mellow and assured mix of contemporary and post-bop styles and strong compositional skills".

Don't let Sunday night get the better of you - come and see why the critics have been raving about the Josh Kemp Quartet and enjoy a mellow evening of jazz.

The Josh Kemp Quartet play at the Ilminster Arts Centre this Sunday (November 15th) at 8pm. Tickets are £12, available by calling 01460 54973 or online via the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

When Holmes Met Watson

Katrina Fry

"WHEN HOLMES MET WATSON" brings a mystery, fun, rock music and spine tingling beautiful singing to Honiton Beehive on Saturday 28th and Sunday, November 29th, presented by Honiton Players.

Familiar faces from the Players and Honiton Panto are joined by professional singers and accomplished actors from Exeter and Somerset, including Katrina Fry who has just completed ten years of touring with Abba Mania (and incidentally also found time to write a top ten single).

Applaud loudly enough and she just might sing Dancing Queen!

Holmes is played by Honiton favourite Shaun Bonetta - his violin playing has to be seen to be believed - and maybe the sleuths amongst you will be able to work out whodunit even quicker than the Great Detective himself? Don't miss this fantastic show, only £8 (£6 children) - book with the Beehive.

Sizzling Guys And Dolls on stage in Axminster!

DON'T MISS Axminster Musical Theatre's forthcoming production as the highly acclaimed musical of Guys and Dolls heads to The Guildhall, Axminster for a five day run. The buzzing New York tale of gamblers, gangsters and nightclub singers will leave you thrilled with a glorious evening filled with some of Broadway's greatest show-stopping tunes, including 'Luck be a Lady', 'Sit

Adelaide and the Hot Box Girls

Down You're Rockin' the Boat' and 'My Time of Day'. Along with dazzling choreography, thrilling direction from Nick Lawrence, this is a feel-good show you won't want to miss.

The cast is huge for this stunning show, breathing pace, energy and vitality into a new and fresh contemporary adaptation of what was the show to see on Broadway. Directed by Nick Lawrence, the man behind the huge success of Jesus Christ Superstar last year performed by the Society, together with NODA award winning choreographer Rachel Worsley who has delivered some outstanding dance routines.

A cast and full orchestra is led by Silvey Webber as the pious Salvation Army sergeant Sarah Brown and Kelly Apps as the long-suffering Miss Adelaide. Local boy Tom Matthews plays the notorious gambler Sky Master-son and Tucker Stevens plays the local legend Nathan

Nicely Nicely and the Salvation Army

Detroit. Last year audiences would have been spell bound watching Tom play Jesus in Jesus Christ Superstar with such a memorable performance whilst local girl Kelly played Eva Peron in the highly acclaimed Evita at the Marine Theatre earlier this year in Lyme Regis.

The company's aim of encouraging youth into local theatre has been hugely successful this year - our highly talented "hot box" dancing girls are unmissable!!

Gangsters will be forever sinful and bad! And this year we have some of the baddest guys in town!

Guys and Dolls is packed with humour and energy and is delivered brilliantly by AMT's own very famous Kevin Fairburn as Nicely Nicely (Pontius Pilot in Jesus Christ Superstar)!

The perfect couple Nathan played by Tucker Stevens and Adelaide by Kelly Apps.

This is a show not to miss so book your tickets online now axminstermusicaltheatre.co.uk or visit the Archway Bookshop in Axminster, EX13 5AQ (01297 335495).

Dates for the show are Tuesday 17th to Saturday, November 21st at 7.30 pm with a matinee on the Saturday at 2.30 pm.

Sophie Rosa and Simon Lane to perform for Concerts in the West series

AT JUST seven years of age, violinist Sophie Rosa was chosen to perform a solo concerto in front of HRH Princess Margaret - early proof of the prodigious talent of this exciting young musician who has performed regularly throughout the UK and internationally since she was a child. Since then Sophie Rosa has gone on to achieve numerous awards and was a finalist in the BBC Young Musician of the Year competition in 2006. In November, Sophie Rosa, partnered by the outstanding pianist Simon Lane, will perform the penultimate concert of Concerts in the West's 2015 series, at venues in Devon, Dorset and Somerset.

Catherine Hodgson, founder and director of Concerts in the West said: "What is particularly fascinating about Sophie Rosa is that she plays a Joseph Gagliano of Naples violin, which dates back to 1795. It was once owned by the 19th Century violinist August Wilhelmj and she chose this instrument for its beautiful, rich, warm and velvety tone, which she says fits her musical personality very well."

In 2014 Sophie recorded works by Franck, Ravel and Ysaye at Champs Hill Records with Ben Powell, piano and the resulting CD will be completed this year. Other career highlights include performing live on air for BBC Radio 3, being awarded the Worshipful Company of Musicians Silver Medal and winning the Lions European Music Competition, Cannes. She has received the prestigious MBF Ian Fleming Charitable Trust Award, as well as the Gold Medal from the Royal Northern College of Music, where she studied.

Sophie has performed at the MBNA Chester Music Festival, The Manchester Midday Concert Society, The Aurora Festival, Sweden, Musique Cordiale Festival, France, Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival and the International Musicians Seminar, Prussia Cove. As a chamber musician she has collaborated with names such as Martin Roscoe, Nobuko Imai and James Gilchrist.

For her West Country performances, Sophie will be accompanied by pianist Simon Lane who has gained a reputation as a compelling and sensitive musician. Simon has performed with world renowned names such as Danielle de Niese, Guy Johnston, Tamsin Waley-Cohen and Jack Liebeck and has appeared regularly at London's Wigmore Hall, as well as venues in Europe and America.

Sophie Rosa and Simon Lane perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, November 13th at 8pm, and at The Hub, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 14th at 7.30pm.

Tickets for the Ilminster show are £15 (a pre-concert supper is available at 7pm for £11 - advanced booking is required) by calling 01460 55783 or visit www.the-meetinghouse.org.uk

Tickets for the Lyme Regis concert are £15, available from Serendip (Broad Street, Lyme Regis) by calling 01297 442594.

Gigspanner return to The David Hall

SINCE HIS DEPARTURE from folk-rock pioneers Steelee Span at the end of 2013, legendary fiddle player Peter Knight has turned his full attention to his trio Gigspanner, and in the process has firmly established their burgeoning reputation as one of the most innovative acts on the folk/roots scene.

Justifiably met with significant critical acclaim, Gigspanner's riveting new album 'Layers of Ages' sees the band blowing the dust from a collection of well-worn traditional music and song to reveal authentic moments of staggering originality and great beauty, and has been added to the Telegraph's 'Best Folk Albums of 2015' list.

Hailed by Songlines magazine as "another milestone in folk's rebirth of cool", Gigspanner present a carefully curated and skilfully narrated program of material that goes way beyond the folk genres usual boundaries. Modern in interpretation yet classical in its virtuosity, it is music that continues to inspire audiences of all leanings, bringing them back for more.

Peter is joined by Roger Flack on Guitar and Vincent Salzfaas on Percussion.

Peter Knight's Gigspanner play at The David Hall, Roundwell Street, South Petherton on Friday, November 13th. Doors 8pm. Tickets £15 from 01460 240340.

Christmas Pudding

Preparation time

Overnight

Cooking time

2 hours

Ingredients

350g/12oz mixed dried fruit (raisins, currants, sul-tanais)
100g/3½oz pitted ready-to-eat prunes, chopped or left whole
100g/3½oz dark muscovado sugar • 4 tbsp dark rum
100ml/3½fl oz stout • 100g/3½oz chopped walnuts 100g/3½oz blanched almonds • 100g/3½oz ground almonds
100g/3½oz fresh white breadcrumbs • 50g/1¾oz
plain flour
100g/3½oz frozen butter, grated, plus a little extra for greasing
½ tsp freshly grated nutmeg • 1 tsp ground cinnamon
2 tsp mixed spice • 100g/3½oz chopped glacé cherries (or left whole if you prefer) • 3 large free-range eggs, beaten

Preparation method

1. Combine the mixed fruit, prunes, muscovado sugar, rum and stout in a mixing bowl. Stir well to mix, cover and leave for 24 hours to soak.
2. After 24 hours, mix the walnuts, almonds, ground almonds, breadcrumbs, flour, butter, spices, cherries and eggs along with the soaked fruit mixture in a large mixing bowl, making sure you include all the soaking liquor from the soaked fruit. Mix well until completely combined (let all the members of the family have a stir and make a wish).
3. Cover with cling film and leave to stand in a cool place for 24 hours.
4. After 24 hours, grease a 1.2 litre/2 pint pudding basin with butter. Cut a circle of baking paper and place into the bottom of the pudding basin and then grease it with a little more butter. Pack the pudding mixture into the pudding basin, pressing as you add it. Fold a pleat into the middle of a large piece of baking paper and place over the pudding. Cover with a large piece of pleated foil, ensuring the pleats are on top of one another. Secure tightly with kitchen string tied under the lip of the pudding basin.
5. Place an upturned saucer into a large saucepan one-quarter full of water. Fold a long piece of foil into quarters lengthways to create a long strip and place the pudding basin in the middle of the strip. Bring the sides of the strip up the sides of the pudding basin and lower into the saucepan. Ensure the water in the saucepan comes one-third of the way up the side of the pudding basin, but nowhere near the top of the basin. Leave the ends of the foil strip hanging over the side to make it easy to remove the pudding later.
6. Bring the water to the boil and then reduce the heat to a gentle simmer. Simmer gently for 5-6 hours, topping up the water level as necessary throughout cooking (do not allow the pan to dry out).
7. Once the pudding is cooked, remove from the pan and set aside to cool. The pudding can be stored for up to two years in a cool, dry place. To serve, reheat the pudding by steaming again (in the same way) for two hours, or until hot all the way through. Alternatively, remove the foil and reheat in the microwave.

Bothen Hill Produce

Free Range Bronze Turkeys

BOTHEN HILL have been providing their home-reared free range bronze turkeys for many years to customers all over West Dorset. Orders are now being taken for oven ready birds, crowns and their Eazit Turkey, a rolled breast meat stuffed with their own sausage meat for easy carving.

To compliment the turkeys, Bothen Hill also grows organic vegetables throughout the year. These are available via a weekly box scheme in and around Bridport and also at the monthly Farmer's Market. Additionally vegetables can be purchased direct from the farm on Friday mornings between 10.00 am and noon. They provide a seasonal selection of produce freshly picked on the farm in Bothenhampton and delivered direct - from farm to fork.

Orders are now being taken for Christmas turkeys and vegetable boxes by phone or e mail as below.

The Old Inn, Kilminster

THE OLD INN at Kilminster is always a popular choice for smaller more intimate Christmas parties and celebrations. 2015 was another busy year for the pub picking up the prestigious Gold award in the Taste of The West competition and being nominated as south west regional finalists in the dining pub category. This December's party menu sticks to the wholesome pub food menu for which they have become so popular.

Booked parties will have their tables decorated to a festive theme and enjoy drinks in the lounge by the roaring open fire.

The pub also offers a more informal skittles night for parties up to 20 guests. Enjoy this classic pub game and then have a finger buffet served in the lounge afterwards. There are more details of this on the website www.oldinnkilminster.co.uk or by calling 01297 32096.

Tierra Kitchen

IT'S been a great third year at Tierra Kitchen, the restaurant has now completely found its feet and is established as one of Lyme's most popular eateries. The awards keep coming; this year winning the prestigious Taste of the West Gold medal, and runner up in the organisations award for best overall restaurant. 2015 has seen the arrival and popular sales of Tierra's first cookbook, featuring 40 original recipes.

December at Tierra means a delicious alternative to the usual generic fare; original, vibrant modern dishes packed with flavour and texture using the best local and seasonal produce. Adored by vegetarians and meat eaters alike, Tierra will be offering such delights as Applewood cheddar and chestnut soufflé, chervil root and pistachio croquettes and hot white chocolate, almond and cranberry fondant to name just a few. Throughout December Tierra's chefs will also be cooking a fabulous 6 course tasting menu for those wanting to experience the full monty.

Team Tierra work hard at Christmas time to create a warm, friendly atmosphere with the best alternative music selection. Ideal for intimate dinners and small to medium size groups, why not stuff the Turkey this year and enjoy a really delicious, original alternative.

Tierra Kitchen's Butternut Squash soup with Moroccan spices and crispy chick peas

This delicious Autumnal soup has a deep golden colour and a silky velvet texture. The spices used in classic Moroccan "ras el hanout", which literally means top of the draw, have a floral flavour, which gives the famous tagines and other Moroccan dishes their unique character. The spice mix includes fennel, cumin, coriander, saffron and rose petals which produces a soup with a sweet depth of flavour. Serves 4

Equipment needed; a blender/food processor

Ingredients

50 ml extra virgin olive oil
2 medium onions, peeled and finely sliced
3 large cloves garlic, peeled and finely chopped
2 sticks celery, chopped into 1 cm pieces
2 small butternut squash (approximately 1 kilo), peeled, de-seeded and cut into 2cm square chunks
2 heaped dessert spoons
ras el hanout spice mix
1.2 litres vegetable stock
1 level dessert spoon
Maldon/ good quality sea salt flakes
200 gm cooked chick peas

Method

Place a good sized saucepan on a moderate heat, add half the olive oil and the sliced onion, saute for 3 minutes until the onion is softening and becoming translucent, add the garlic and celery, saute for 2 more minutes, taking care not to colour the vegetables. Now add the butternut squash and half the ras el hanout, saute and stir for 5 minutes. Add the stock and sea salt flakes, bring the soup to the boil, simmer gently for 25 minutes. Blend the soup in a food processor for 2 minutes until smooth and silky. Roast chick peas; Pre-heat oven to 180 Degrees C Baste the chick peas in the remaining olive oil and ras el hanout, roast for 10 minutes until golden and crispy, and serve with the soup.

The Admiral Hood

Enjoy the festive season at The Admiral Hood

THIS Christmas is set to be a great one at The Admiral Hood in Mosterton, near Beaminstor. Enjoy live music on Christmas Eve from the fantastic Vinyl Monkeys who are playing from 4:30-6:30pm. Christmas Day itself there is no food, but they will be open for drinks from 12-2pm. The pub will be open all day on Boxing Day, and open as normal the rest of the time with food served from 12-2pm and 6:30 – 8pm.

The Christmas menu is always very popular with dates booking up fast. However, there is still space to celebrate on the evenings of Friday 11th, Saturday 12th and Saturday 19th December. You can enjoy a sumptuous three course meal including coffee for just £17.50 or two courses for £13.95.

There are also a number of lunch time dates available for the special Senior Citizens Christmas menu. These dates are Tuesday 8th, 15th and 22nd, Wednesday 9th and 16th and Friday 4th, 11th, 18th of December. The three course is just £12.50 or enjoy two courses for £9.50, both options include coffee.

If you enjoy good pub food in a friendly atmosphere, then book your Christmas party at The Admiral Hood. For bookings call 01308 868338 or visit our website for a booking form www.admiralhood.co.uk

Symondsbury Estate

NOW in its third year the ever popular Christmas Market is taking place on Thursday 26th November from 2pm until 7pm.

It's the most traditional Christmas Market in the area and will be full of Christmas cheer! Locally produced food and drink such as chutneys, cheeses, cider and wine will be on offer as well as unique, vintage, upcycled and hand crafted items on sale.

Santa will be making an appearance in the old stables next to Symondsbury Store and Symondsbury School will be entertaining us with some Christmas Carols at 3pm.

There will be outside food and drink outlets to include mulled wine, cider & burgers as well as a fully licensed bar in the Tithe Barn. Symondsbury Kitchen will have a special Christmas Market menu and will be open throughout the day.

We also have a variety of retail & artisan units that will be open for some original Christmas Gift Ideas.

We look forward to welcoming you all to Manor Yard for another enjoyable Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market!

Christmas Day lunch & Boxing Day brunch!

Cricket St Thomas

A cider-country jewel with a rum touch of maritime, Cricket St. Thomas is an elegant mansion built c1820.

Designed in the Regency manner by the famed neo-classicist Sir John Soane, the house is noted for its glorious Grade II-listed gardens of mature cedars, maples and yews, on whose layout the 2nd Baron Bridport spent over £250,000; damming a stream, creating a chain of lakes and planting ornamental trees and shrubs. But for a country estate so rural in its setting, the story of Cricket St Thomas is decidedly maritime in flavour.

In c1328, the manor was bought by Sir Walter de Rodney, ancestor of Admiral, Lord Rodney. Then, in 1775, the estate was acquired by Alexander Hood, who was to assume second-in-command of the Channel fleet during the Napoleonic Wars. And to cap it all, the vice-admiral's heir Samuel Hood, the 2nd Baron Bridport, married Horatio Nelson's niece Charlotte, whose uncle and Lady Hamilton were frequent guests at the house.

Today you can readily appreciate and enjoy the loving care that Lord Hood and his family lavished on this stunning estate. Within the grounds is the 12th Century parish church of St Thomas, which features the brocade cloth which adorned the Coronation altar in 1953.

All told, with a heritage as noble and as varied as this, it's small wonder that the BBC chose the estate of Cricket St Thomas as location for the popular sitcom 'To The Manor Born' adding a fitting extra dimension to a history that's already an embarrassment of riches.

Father Christmas Cupcake

Preparation time 30 mins Cooking time 25 mins
Makes 12 cupcakes

Ingredients

For the Cupcake

200g Unrefined golden caster sugar
200g Butter (unsalted) softened • 3 eggs
200g Self-raising flour • 1tsp Vanilla extract

For the Father Christmas Topper

250g each of Sugar paste icing in red, chocolate, white & black
• 60ml Water • Apricot Jam

Preparation method

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C (160°C fan, gas mark 4) and line a 12 hole cupcake tin with cases.
2. Cream together the butter and sugar until pale and fluffy, then add the eggs one by one mixing in well in between then add the vanilla extract. Fold in the flour then spoon into the cases.
3. Place in the oven for 20-25 minutes or until golden and a skewer come out clean.
4. To make the father christmas cake topper, use the red sugar paste icing and roll out a ball about 5cm in diameter then flatten the base. Next roll out a sausage about 10cm long and 1.5cm diameter for his arms and finally make a cone shape for his hat and squash the pointed end over to one side.
5. Take some of the white icing and a little of the red and roll them together until the red blends in to give you a pink colour for his head.
6. Next take some black icing and roll 2 small balls for eyes, 2 larger balls for his gloved hands and then roll out a little for a belt.
7. To assemble, use a little water to glue the black belt onto the red body. Next finish the arms by attaching the black hands to the ends of the red 'sausage' shape. Then roll out some of the white icing until is around the end of the arms for his cuffs, using some water to glue. Then cut the arms leaving a diagonal edge. Attach these using a little water, squashing the arms around the body.
8. Next make a small ball using the white icing for a pom pom and attach to the top of the hat.
9. To finish, cut a disc of white icing and cut out a small edged piece for his beard, and 2 smaller pieces for his moustache. Make a small ball using red icing for nose. The attach 2 small balls of white icing and small black icing balls for his eyes.
10. To decorate your cupcake, roll out some chocolate icing and cut into disc, place this on the cake using some warm apricot jam to stick. Then place the jolly father Christmas on top.

Egg Nog

Preparation time Less than 30 mins
Cooking time Less than 10 mins
Serves 4-6

Ingredients

1140ml/2 pints whole milk • 6 free-range eggs
50g/2oz caster sugar • 1 vanilla pod, split
20 fresh cherries, stones removed and halved 200ml/7fl oz brandy • cocoa powder, for dusting

Preparation method

1. Place the milk, eggs, sugar and vanilla pod in a medium pan and heat gently, without boiling, until the mixture thickens enough to coat the back of a spoon.
2. The egg nog can be chilled at this stage or served hot.
3. To serve, scatter the cherries in the bottom of each serving glass. Divide the brandy between the glasses and pour the egg nog over. Dust with cocoa powder and serve.

The Ridgeway Inn

A great venue for every occasion

KEVIN, Carole and Cohen welcome you to The Ridgeway. We have been here for over 27 years, and now that Cohen is a little older, we have increased opening hours.

The Ridgeway is open Tuesday through to Sunday for a traditional lunch. It is always best to call ahead if you are making a special journey as we do try to have the occasional day trip with Cohen.

If you are planning a party or celebration, why not call to discuss your arrangements? We have a civil license for wedding and civil ceremonies, or the Rafter's restaurant is a great venue for those special birthdays or anniversaries, and is available for private hire.

Our Christmas menu is now out and we cater for parties from mid-November until December 23rd, with two course menus starting from £15.99.

New for autumn 2015 is our wood fired oven, so come and try our authentic pizzas and watch them being cooked from £8.50. The sizzling rib steak platter for two is available for £25.

At the moment we are only lighting the oven on a Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday lunch, although book a party and we will exclusively light it for you (minimum eight people).

So why not visit the Ridgeway for great food, great atmosphere and great company?

Felt Christmas Tree Ornament Tutorial

www.buddlycrafts.com | Handmade by Josie Day

Whilst I love zooming up and down on my sewing machine, there's something about the shorter winter nights which makes me want to curl up in front of the fire with a hand sewing project and here's the ideal make - Funky little felt ornaments. They're perfect for hanging on your tree or adorning that special present. I've also included a freestanding version, offering up even more decorating possibilities for your dinner table or festive mantel!

Step 1. Trace around the wooden Christmas tree shape onto your green and brown felt and cut out the required number of pieces. You will need two green tree fronts and one brown trunk for each ornament. I used a light green felt which, combined with bright buttons, gives a really modern feel to the project. Should you prefer a more traditional theme, simply use a darker felt and scarlet buttons.

Step 2. Place the mini buttons into a pleasing arrangement and then stitch securely using matching thread.

Step 3. Using green thread stitch around the tree shape, inserting a burlap loop at the top and the brown trunk piece at the bottom.

Step 4. If you are making the free standing version, colour a craft stick with brown felt-tip pen and insert along with your stuffing.

Step 5. Insert the craft stick into a large wooden bead or wooden sewing bobbin.

Step 6. That's it! Now simply give your new handmade ornament pride of place amongst your other decorations!

Bridget's Market

BRIDGET'S MARKET Greengrocers in the heart of Bridport is run by Marina and Steve Price who aim to provide affordable quality with a varied range of fresh, seasonal fruit and vegetables. Where possible they source ingredients from local suppliers and currently stock a diverse range of apples and pears grown locally at Elwell Farm. Since taking over the business last year they have introduced several new lines, including an expanded wholefoods range, a brand new home baking section which includes a range of different flours and sugars, a comprehensive selection of spices, Asian and Middle Eastern ingredients and other speciality ingredients. Bridget's Market also sells a selection of local cheeses supplied by Longman's dairy and will shortly be introducing a new cheese counter to expand the range of cheese on sale. Fresh milk and eggs are also available to purchase along with chilled drinks.

In addition to retail trade, Bridget's Market supplies fresh fruit and vegetables to several local restaurants, pubs and cafes and welcomes new wholesale customers.

PLOT WITH PLANNING CONSENT, MUSBURY – ASKING PRICE £255,000

A RARE opportunity has arisen to acquire a development site in the sought-after village of Musbury in East Devon. The site benefits from detailed planning consent for the demolition of three existing outbuildings and construction of two 4-bedroom, detached properties, both with off-road parking and one with a detached double garage. The properties have been designed to maximise the views across open fields behind the plot and consist of open-plan Kitchen/Dining Room, Sitting Room, Cloakroom and Utility Room to the ground floor and 4 Bedrooms and Bathroom to the first floor, Master with Ensuite and Balcony. Property 1 also has consent for the construction of a Detached Double Garage.

(Ref: 14/0970/FUL) was approved by East Devon District Council on the 1st December 2014 granting consent for the demolition of outbuildings and erection of two detached dwellings plus a detached garage including alterations to access.

For more information or to arrange a viewing, please contact Fortnam, Smith and Banwell on 01297 23939. Asking price £255,000.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Kim Beauchamp Foot Health Practitioner

I moved to Axminster in 2013 and already have a well established mobile foot care clinic, offering a consultation and treatment service for foot health problems. I visit patients in their own homes as well as nursing/residential homes, which provides a convenient and flexible service especially for those with less mobility. My initial visit includes a full medical history overview, foot health assessment, professional foot advice and treatment.

My aim is to provide my patients with a professional and friendly service ensuring that the highest standards of hygiene are maintained at all times. I work with each patient on a foot health treatment plan to achieve and maintain healthy and pain free feet.

Conditions where treatment and advice is available range from:

- Corns and calluses
- Fungal foot and nail infections
- Verrucae
- Cracked heels
- Ingrown toenails
- Ball of foot pain
- Diabetic foot care
- Footwear advice

Whether you require a one-off treatment or foot care attention on a regular basis I can be contacted on 07926 093053 or 01460 221806.

Range Rover Evoque convertible – a convertible for all seasons

▲ The Range Rover Evoque convertible

LAND Rover has unveiled the world's first luxury compact SUV convertible. Range Rover Evoque Convertible combines the bold design and refinement of Evoque with comprehensive specification and a sophisticated folding roof to create a no compromise, all-season convertible.

The ground breaking and distinctive shape of the original Range Rover Evoque lends itself to an elegant convertible design and the new model sits at the pinnacle of the Evoque portfolio as the most exclusive and capable convertible in the world.

As the fifth member of the Range Rover family – and the first ever convertible – the highly desirable new model combines traditional Range Rover luxury with a distinctive four-seat design and versatile storage.

The Range Rover Evoque Convertible has been engineered to meet Land Rover's most rigorous standards, ensuring exceptional structural rigidity, trademark refinement, outstanding levels of safety and unrivalled breadth of capability.

Gerry McGovern, Land Rover Design Director and Chief Creative Officer, commented: "Range Rover Evoque Convertible is a vehicle for all seasons. Its uniquely distinctive design and world-class engineering adds another dimension to the Range Rover family, further enhancing its desirability and appeal."

The global SUV market is forecast to grow by 20 per cent over the next five years* and Evoque Convertible will play a key role in continuing Range Rover's 45-year success story, pioneering an all-new SUV sector.

Evoque Convertible's eye-catching exterior design is made possible by a sophisticated fabric roof shaped to create a crisply defined silhouette that remains faithful to the original design. Its Z-fold mechanism lays flush with the rear bodywork for a sleek, uncluttered appearance when lowered. The fabric roof is the longest and widest currently fitted to any vehicle on sale today.

The fully-automated roof stows in 18 seconds, and can be raised in 21 seconds, at speeds up to 30mph. When closed it provides high standards of refinement with a layer of acoustic insulation ensuring interior comfort on a par with five-door Evoque. In addition, the position of the roof doesn't affect loadspace, with a generous 251-litre boot offering unrivalled practicality for a convertible.

At the heart of the high-class cabin is an all-new, high-resolution 10.2-inch touchscreen with Jaguar Land Rover's next-generation infotainment system, InControl Touch Pro, which debuts in a Land Rover. Raising the standard of connectivity for the brand, the highly-responsive and super-fast InControl Touch Pro offers seamless smartphone integration, door-to-door navigation, 3G connectivity and a premium sound system.

Safety hasn't been overlooked with a Roll-Over Protection Device featuring deployable roll-over bars hidden in the rear bodywork. It deploys two aluminium bars within 90 milliseconds in the unlikely event of a roll-over situation to create a survival space for occupants.

Land Rover's full suite of lightweight, all-aluminium four-cylinder petrol and diesel engines is available with the potent 240PS Si4 petrol providing outstanding levels of performance and refinement.

Diesel power comes from Land Rover's 2.0-litre Ingenium engines which provide highly efficient and refined performance with fuel economy up to 55mpg (5.1 l/100km) and CO2 emissions as low as 149g/km.

Evoque Convertible is underpinned by Land Rover's world-class all-terrain capability, using the same advanced technologies as Evoque five-door and Coupé derivatives. A customary choice of four-wheel drive powertrains combines with Land Rover's nine-speed automatic transmission, Terrain Response® system, Wade Sensing and All-Terrain Progress Control to ensure Evoque is a convertible for all seasons.

The new Range Rover Evoque Convertible will be produced at Land Rover's Halewood plant in the UK, alongside the five door and Coupé bodystyles, and goes on sale across from Spring 2016 in more than 170 markets worldwide.

Pricing in the UK will start from £47,500 OTR based on a TD4 HSE Dynamic derivative.

Renault Twingo to receive EDC transmission

RENAULT'S Efficient Dual Clutch transmission, known as EDC, has been introduced on its ingenious urban runaround Twingo. The multiple award-winning city car gains the innovative automatic gearbox for the popular TCe90 engine just over a year after launch, resulting in a number of benefits for the customer.

The introduction on Twingo means that Renault's EDC transmission is now available across the majority of its range. EDC is an automatic dual dry clutch transmission dispensing with the need for a clutch pedal. Gearshift control is of the 'P-R-N-D' type, plus an 'up/down' shift mode. The ideal gear is selected by an electronic control unit and gearshifts are both automatic and comfortable.

Available for £900 more than the equivalent manual version, the introduction of the EDC transmission offers the driver and passengers a smooth journey thanks to an ultrafast shift time of 290ms. The transmission's 'creep' control also helps the driver in crawling traffic, pulling away gradually when the brake pedal is released. The EDC transmission also offers Hill Start Assist as standard, ensuring safe hill starts when partnered with the 'creep' control system.

▲ The Renault Twingo with EDC transmission

The Twingo EDC's 0.9-litre 90hp turbo engine is also available with Renault's ECO mode, cutting fuel consumption by up to 10%. Actionable by the driver, the mode modifies the management of the gearbox ECU (Electronic Control Unit), enabling gear shifts at lower rpm.

Changes have also been made to the Twingo's specification, with six-spoke 15" inch 'Ariane' alloy wheels becoming standard on Dynamique trim, replacing the 15" 'Exception' alloys. Customers will also be able to choose from the option of having extra-tinted rear windows on Dynamique and Dynamique S trim levels.

The five-door, four-seater Twingo is priced from £9,495. Its highly unusual rear-engined, rear-wheel-drive layout allows it to be both compact and spacious. Because the engine is mounted at an angle of 49 degrees to the vertical, the Twingo still manages to provide a capacious boot of between 219 (seats in cargo) and 980 litres (seats folded). Another highly beneficial effect of the mechanical layout is the class-leading turning circle of less than 8.6 metres, because the movement of the front wheels is not restricted by the engine.

The Twingo is available in four versions, powered by a choice of two three-cylinder engines – a 1.0-litre 70hp normally aspirated unit or a 0.9-litre 90hp turbo. Both endow the Twingo with to match its agile, nimble handling.

The Twingo is fully connected to the outside world through the standard smartphone-operated R&GO® feature or Renauld's optional R-Link multimedia system with seven-inch touch-screen, and offers a huge range of personalisation options so that buyers can create a bespoke car.

As with all new Renaults, Twingo is covered by a four-year warranty that offers unlimited-mileage cover in the first two years and then two further years of protection up to 100,000 miles. Four years roadside assistance cover is also included.

Avoid a winter breakdown in five easy steps, says GEM

ROAD safety organisation GEM Motoring Assist is offering simple tips for drivers to ensure trouble-free journeys this winter. Giving some attention now to batteries, tyres, anti-freeze, wipers, lights and other car essentials is the best way of ensuring reliability in the months to come, says GEM.

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "The last thing anyone needs is to break down on a chilly morning. Prevention is always better than cure, so by paying some attention to basic winter maintenance needs, you have the best chance of ensuring you don't get stranded out in the cold."

Here are GEM's five simple steps for reducing the chance of a breakdown or malfunction this winter:

1 Get the battery and charging system checked to ensure best performance. A large number of winter calls to GEM's breakdown control centre relate to flat batteries. Cold weather puts a lot of strain on tired batteries, so consider changing it now to avoid the inconvenience of a breakdown.

2 Ensure your car's cooling system has the correct levels of anti-freeze, which is vital to prevent the water in your engine's cooling system from freezing. GEM recommends you consult your local dealer or a qualified mechanic to ensure this is done correctly.

3 Check tyre tread depth and pressure weekly through the winter. Good tyres will ensure the safety systems on your car are as effective as possible. GEM recommends a minimum tread depth of 3mm (the legal minimum is 1.6mm), as this will disperse much more water from the road and will minimise your risk of skidding and losing control.

4 Make sure all the lights on your car, inside and out, are working properly. Clean them regularly to ensure they are free of dirt, so that you can see, and others can see you.

Do you need new windscreen wipers at front and rear? Check for efficient working and use cold weather washer fluid. Do not use the windscreen wipers to clear ice, as this will very quickly lead to damage.

Millwey edge through in cup thriller

Bow beaten as Tigers go joint top – Beer reprieve falls flat

MATCH REPORTS

BEER ALBION 0

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 7

Throgmorton Devon Premier Cup AFTER being reinstated in the Devon Premier Cup Beer Albion were unable to capitalise, crashing out 7-0 to SW Peninsular League side Budleigh Salterton at the Furzebrake on Saturday.

After their excellent league win at Feniton the previous Saturday, the Fishermen fancied their chances of an upset against their SWPL opponents, and for first 43 minutes this seemed possible as they put up a solid resistance, particularly at corners and set pieces which have so often been their undoing this season.

In fact, the home side might have gone 1-0 up after only two minutes when a clever chip from Callum Gribble hit the upright, but for the rest of the game Beer carried little attacking threat, badly missing injured front man Seth Wakely.

Just as Beer had thought that they had done enough to go in at half-time on level terms, they gifted soft goals in the 44th and 45th minutes to hand Budleigh a 2-0 advantage at the break. This seemed to knock the stuffing out of the Fishermen as they were completely overwhelmed for most of the second half. Budleigh scored their third on 56 minutes and added a fourth a few minutes later before player-manager Walker brought on midfielder Pedro Fontes.

Briefly, Beer began to show more composure and creativity as Fontes linked up well with skilled midfielder James Melville.

But by this time the Fishermen were running out of steam and the visitors added a further goal on 70, 74 and 90 minutes to complete the rout.

Match sponsors The Colcombe Beer Boys nominated the Man-the-Match award to Budleigh's Aaron Denny who scored a fine hat-trick and to Beer's James Melville who was excellent throughout.

Budleigh's other scorers were Alex Partridge, Henry Gibbins, George Pannell and Jack Howarth.

AXMINSTER RES 3 BOW AAC RES 1

D&E Division 4

AXMINSTER Reserves hosted 9th placed Bow AAC looking to reverse a defeat in the reverse fixture last month.

The Tigers should have taken the lead 17th minute when Peter Knox left the Bow defence in his wake and with only the goal-keeper to beat he placed his shot wide.

The home side broke their resilient Bow defence on the half-hour with a goal by Mark Hancock following a defensive misunderstanding.

Bow came out for the second half with all guns blazing and should have equalised when they were gifted a free header.

It was a warning to Axminster. Bow went close again when Simon Wynne's neat flick-on from a corner grazed the top of the crossbar.

The pressure had to tell and Bow deservedly drew level in the 70th minute through Connor Vincent.

It was now Axminster's turn to step up a gear and re-took the lead through top-scorer Dan Beer.

The momentum was now with the home side and keeper Dean Jones saved well from an Ollie Highest header.

As the game went into injury time a forceful run by Knox made space for Alex Wheatley to seal the win.

MILLWEY RISE 5 K&M POLONIA 4

Devon Intermediate Cup R3 (E)

THE biggest surprise was the fact that this game was played considering the amount of rain that had fallen writes Dick Sturch.

It was left to an early inspection by the referee to decide, and his decision turned out to be the correct one.

The other surprise was the quality of football played by K&M Polonia considering they are mid table, two divisions below the home side.

Millwey are currently experiencing a dismal run of form with no cohesion whatsoever. Their answer to everything appears to be a long ball out of defence in the hope that it may reach Levi Hoole.

Any link-up play is at a minimum and what's missing appears to be a functioning 'engine room' in midfield. At no point during the game did the home team look comfortable.

Millwey opened the scoring with a well taken goal from Nathan Wormesley after 15 minutes. This was quickly followed by another for Hoole. It then took only two minutes before Polonia pulled one back with a powerful header.

Hoole increased the home side's lead once more from a penalty and then a Sam Turner strike increased the margin to three goals.

The visitors, playing an attractive passing game, reduced the arrears for 4-2 three minutes before half time when Millwey's defence failed to clear their lines.

And even though, in the dying minutes, a rifling shot from Michael Knight grazed the Polonia crossbar and Turner, added to his tally, to increase the home side's lead to 5-2, the visitors definitely finished the half on top.

Five minutes after the interval Polonia reduced the arrears yet again with a powerful shot that gave the home keeper no chance. They should have had another a few minutes later but for a bad miss from the penalty spot.

Hoole did get the ball in the net once more but was harshly judged to be offside. Millwey then quizzically substituted Turner, and the industrious Wormesley when perhaps a re-jig of the midfield may have been a better option.

On their departure further pressure was applied by the visitors and it came as little surprise when they reduced the arrears to 5-4 which left a volatile 'Tea Hut terrace' contingent to see out the five anxious minutes remaining.

There was a universal sigh of relief around the ground when the final whistle went, together with a feeling of incredulity that a team, who had started the season with so much confidence, could in the course of a couple of games be reduced to one capable of putting themselves under so much self-inflicted pressure.

Once again Levi Hoole up front and Nathan Hoole in goal figured high in the reason Millwey Rise went through to the next round of the Devon Intermediate Cup.

Somewhere Manager Simon Flint must find the catalyst needed to gel the ability of the players he has at his disposal to reproduce their earlier confidence, which at the moment, appears sadly lacking.

D&E round-up

with Collin Goodwin

STEVE Ebdy slammed four goals to mastermind CHULMLEIGH a place in the last 16 of the Fire-watch Devon Senior cup with an impressive 7-1 victory over CHIVENOR of the North Devon League.

Chris Andrews (2) and Guy Hiscock also scored but most of the other second round ties were postponed and will be restaged next Saturday.

It was a similar story in the A & S Paving Devon Intermediate cup with only MILLWEY RISE getting through to the last 16 with a thrilling 5-4 victory against K&M POLONIA from Exeter (see report left).

Willand Rovers beat Newton St Cyres 2-1 in a midweek Premier match with goals from Josh Wren and George Muggleton but no matches survived the elements yesterday in Premier or the first division.

EXMOUTH TOWN romped to a decisive 11-0 win in Division Two against CULM UNITED.

The mid-Devon side had to scramble their team together after mistakenly thinking the match had been called off.

They then endured a salvo of goals from the hosts whose Richard Higham, James Sharkey and Sam Schaeffli all collected hat-tricks. Adam Turner and Tim Wright contributed singles.

AXMINSTER TOWN RESERVES share top spot in the Fourth Division after they defeated BOW AAC 3-1 (see report left), but the Tigers have played four matches more than joint leaders Bampton whose match at the University was one of many called off.

COUNTESS WEAR DYNAMOES collected maximum points in the other match played in this division, a 1-0 win at NORTH TAW-TON.

FENITON drew 3-3 at ALPHINGTON and that was good enough to take them top of Division Five. Two headers from Jon French and a last minute Elliot Dyer goal earned Fenny their point.

KENTISBEARE closed within two points of top spot with a 4-2 win at home to neighbours DUNKESWELL ROVERS. Reece Knight 2, Kris Roper and Alex Greening had the Kents goals.

Struggling ILMINSTER TOWN RESERVES won 4-1 at EAST BUDLEIGH in the only Division Six match to survive.

Andy Morley (2), Luke Paul and Kieron Davis netted for the Blues who move out of the bottom two.

CENTRAL were 5-3 winners against ELMORE, but after going 5-1 up had a wobble and almost let the eagles catch up. Nick Horne (2), Ryan Grey, Ross Clotworthy and Alex Laffan were the Central marksmen.

LYME REGIS RESERVES and PINHOE moved their match to the all-weather 3G pitch at Axminster College where they duly shared a 2-2 draw.

The Pins led twice but were pegged back by a double from Adam Caddy in his first match for more than two years.

Clubs should be aware that with so many County cup ties postponed yesterday next week's schedule has been severely affected, but fixtures secretary Chris Cole is expecting to re-arrange matches where clubs might think they suddenly have a free Saturday.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

HAWKCHURCH United and both Farway United teams all had their scheduled games postponed as did two thirds of the PSDL due to waterlogged pitches on Saturday.

The Hawks travel to face lowly Ilminster Town Colts in a Division One clash next Saturday while Farway entertain Shepton Beauchamp Reserves in Division Two.

Finally, the Farway second-string face a tough test when they travel to face Division Three title favourites Dawlish & Donyatt. (all games 2.30ko).

◆ THE Devon FA we are holding a new Referee course in Axminster taking advantage of the fantastic new 3G facility at Axminster Leisure Centre.

The course is being held on the 22nd and 29th November with an evening session on the 25th November.

The new FA Referee Course is practically based which will see the candidates blowing whistles and making decisions on the very first day of the course.

The course costs £130 and this includes all the necessary workshops and checks to become a registered referee and also includes course resources and a full Nike referee kit.

Full details of the times of the course can be found on the Devon FA website at www.devonfa.com/referee/become-a-referee or call Referee Development Officer Jason Haywood on 01626 325917.

Axminster Leisure Leagues
LADS ON TOURE are the only team in the new Axminster six a side Premier League to have maximum points after two games.
This week they were in fine form and saw off Rapid Viagra 6-1 in a game where Lorcen Hankin put his marker down to be player of the season.
It wasn't the biggest win of the day, though. That belonged to Tuga's Team who saw off early strugglers The Tools 8-0. Elsewhere Creative Solutions, who had Nick Taylor proving the difference as they edged out Two Girls One Klopp 2-1.
In Division One Tekkerslovakia are looking like the team to beat and Nathan Wormersley helped them to a 5-3 cruise against JCA.
Stop The Bus found the route to victory as Mike Perham was at his best. Carehomessouthwest are bottom of the table and lost 3-0 to Uplyme & Sinker.

Big win for leaders

DIVISION ONE
WITH all teams now having played four games there are still three teams with a 100 per cent record.
One of those, Uplowman, moved to the top of the table with a convincing 58-7 win over bottom placed JD Tyres, who are still looking for their first point.
With Andrea Britton controlling play for Uplowman from the centre they were in control from the start.
Julie Norman worked tirelessly at centre for JD but they were out gunned. Flamingos also made it four wins from four with a close fought 38-25 victory against Toucans Chicks. Teresa Youens was the pick of the Flamingos.

Yettoncup triumph for Ilminster Ladies

CHARD
with Sandra Sumpter
Milford & Dormor League
TRULL 17-11 HURRICANES, Hurricanes got off to a good start to be 4-0 up after two ends.
Trull fought back scoring 4s and 2s whilst restricting Hurricanes to 1s and 2s. Trull finally won by 17 shots to 11.
MUSBURY 8-14 HARLEQUINS: This game was close at times but Harlequins were too strong and pulled away.
It could have turned when Musbury took three shots on one end to but it was just not to be and Harlequins emerged as worthy winners.
CANARIES 15-8 GREYHOUNDS: After five ends it was all square at 5-5, and then the canaries flew away.
Time and again the Canaries were several shots down but their skip continually came in to take an end.
HONITON
with Julie Grant
THERE were two more wins for Honiton bowlers in their mixed friendlies.
The 100 per cent record continued as Honiton beat the NOMADS 81-67 with a top rink of Eileen Dommett, Brian Braund, Brian Long & Margaret Bright (25-13).
The second victory came against ISCA 74-69 with a top rink of Ron Taylor, Yvonne Williams, Barrie Singleton & Tilly Tillier 22-14.
In the Ladies National team competitions Honiton lost 56-92 to TORBAY in the Vivienne triples but both home rinks won; Phyllis Millner, Marian Vessey & Di Morley (20-15) and Myra Singleton, Margaret Bright & Carol Armitage (20-17).

In the Yetton Trophy Honiton triumphed 79-68 over TORQUAY UNITED. Three rinks won, one lost, the top rink playing away were; Rosemary Hirons, Berry Maynard, Yvonne Rayner & Carole Binmore 28-15. The ladies go on to play ISCA in the next round having won the plate version last year.
The men also celebrated success in their Interclub match versus BUDLEIGH. Honiton won on all rinks 112-56, top rink Ken Clarke, Tony Tooley, Gareth Mettam & Trevor Pipe 37-5.

Pearce team too strong

CRICKET St THOMAS
with Bert Robinson
THE poor weather restricted the Seniors to just two events during the week.
In very misty conditions on Monday, 24 golfers attended the three man "waltz" competition.
Only one team appeared to have little difficulty in scoring and John Pearce led his team to victory by 14 points.
Result; 1st John Pearce, Robin Flower & John Wallis 75 points, 2nd Colin Williams, Mike Mosser & Malcolm Roy 61, 3rd Nobby Hodder, Keith Potter & Mike Hone 59.
Thirty two members competed in the 4Ball Better Ball competition on Wednesday where conditions were more conducive to better golf although the persistent mist affected the scoring.
Three pairs managed to achieve scores of below par with Richard Forster's team and Ian Fielder's team both managing equal scores of 37 points to finish in second and third place respectively.
However, the pairing of Bob Barrow & Bill Hilson proved formidable as they dovetailed perfectly to return a score of 39 points.
Result; 1st Bob Barrow & Bill Hilson 39 points, 2nd Richard Forster & Alan Davis 37, 3rd Ian Fielder & John Pearce 37.
HONITON with Liz Rogers
TWENTY members decided to brave the misty weather and play a Rye foursomes over 10 holes.
Owen Eaton & John Pawley, playing in his first Tuesday mixed competition, were the winning pair with 25 points.
In second place were Cherry Liell & Ken Wood with 23. The last prize was taken by Sheila Palmer & Peter Clarke.
Elizabeth and Ken Wood are this month's organisers.

Division Two: Johnny Potter 1st (on back 9) nett 71, 2nd Gavin Farrant nett 71. Gavin Walker and Alex Todd each carded 2s.
The Ladies Section played a Fund Raising stableford match with the entry fee proceeds going to Children in Need.
First place was won by Pauline Willis, 2nd went to Helen Kenworthy and, 3rd to Jo Donmall.
The Seniors' home match against Libbaton was delayed by rain and fog but the team were not affected by the miserable weather and they went on to win this, their last match of the season, 4½ to 1½.
The winning pairs were John Mant & Mick Tones, Leighton Morgan & Chris Walker, Rob Heard & Rob Grove and Ed Backhouse & Peter Hornsby.
Match captain Gilbert Cox and his partner Geoff Wake recorded the half.

BY KEITH JENKIN

Welcome win

Chard 19 Bideford 10
CHARD, whose season has been littered with narrow losses thus far, won this one perhaps a little more decisively than the score actually suggests, although they might just have suffered a few minor palpitations along the way.

They certainly started the stronger and could well have been ten points up before the game was five minutes old, having hit the post with a penalty goal attempt, and failed to convert an overlap.

They turned pressure into points almost immediately however when they mauled their way over from a lineout on the Bideford twenty two, with Helliar emerging with the ball.

The try remained unconverted, but they increased their lead before the game was 15 minutes old.

Having kicked a penalty award to the corner, they again rolled the maul over the visitors' line for lock forward Mortensen to touch down. Humphrey added the extras.

Bideford come more into the game as the interval approached. In the last minute of the first half, they won a penalty on the home twenty two and in front of the posts.

Their place kicker fluffed his effort however and Chard held a 12-0 lead at the halfway stage.

Bideford started the second half the more positively. They kicked a penalty award to the corner and set up a rolling maul that threatened the line. Chard's defence against this play had been pretty good all game however and it coped yet again, finally turning the ball over and clearing upfield.

At this juncture the contest became just a little disjointed. First, one of the Bideford substitutes was yellow carded for handling in the ruck. His departure was followed almost immediately by that of Helliar for some skulduggery or other.

While both sides were down to 14 the visitors did manage to get themselves on to the score sheet when their replacement kicker landed a penalty goal, although the home side still really remained in control at 12-3 ahead.

That changed on the hour mark. Chard assayed a high box kick from a lineout, over-hit it just a little and did not chase effectively.

The Bideford replacement winger took the ball on the burst on halfway and galloped 50 yards to the posts. Snell landed the conversion, and his side were back in the contest just a couple of points adrift.

They could not gain the initiative however. Chard, to their credit, went on the attack.

Much of the rest of the encounter was spent in Bideford's half and, with a few minutes left for play number eight Bartlett crashed over by the posts. Humphrey added the extras and the home side moved clear at 19-10.

Bideford did try to rescue something from the game but to no avail and the whistle for no side sounded with Chard mauling their way to their opponents' line.

Chard will welcome this win which was certainly deserved. They scored three tries to their opponents' one.

Their pack held the upper hand throughout, with prop Billy Biss putting in a good stint at the coal face.

They should however not depend on all sides place kicking as badly as Bideford did.

Chard A 5
Sidmouth & Ottery C 0

A FIRST and ultimately comfortable League victory for a close to full strength Chard 2nd XI, with the luxury of a squad 14 available for the match. Captain Gareth Eggle was not fit to play, so vice James Spurdle donned the armband for the day.

The opening quarter hour was a scrappy affair with Chard squandering two early chances.

While keeper Berge Balian was largely a spectator, the home side looked a little indecisive when Sidmouth ventured into the final third of the field.

Harry Felgate was providing a useful channel of attack down the right wing and he settled Chard's nerves by scoring the first, reacting smartly to follow-up on the rebound after the keeper's initial save.

Chard still needed the cushion of a second goal to ease their anxiety when the visitors attacked, and Trevor Goss did the honours, latching onto the first time cross from Harvey Denning when Sidmouth failed to clear their lines.

The third goal in the early phases of the second half finally enabled Chard to play with greater confidence. Goss provided an aerial pass to Dan Stone who crossed for Spurdle to find the target.

However, Sidmouth maintained their attacking intent and immediately from the restart forced a diving save from Balian.

Apart from this scare, Chard's defence coped well with the visitors' forays forward, Tom Eames and Jason Goddard excellent at the heart of the back four and Nick Liggins and Steve Mahoney marking effectively on the flanks, the defensive cover being bolstered by the midfield efforts of Arthur Critchley and Chris Knight, the latter showing great stamina in what was his first competitive match of the season.

Another aerial pass, this time from Goddard, created the chance for Stone to hit the fourth and this should have been swiftly followed by more as Denning fired wide from a tight angle with options for a pass inside the D.

Stone then hit the post when put through by Mahoney and a few minutes later Spurdle dragged a shot wide from close range. He made amends soon after stretching at the far post to reach another left wing cross from Denning, slotting home the fifth with a shot across the keeper.

Although not among the scorers, Nick Parkinson put in an excellent performance on the left wing, alternating with Denning, his intelligent play and passing being a major contribution to Chard's increasing control of the game.

Yomp serves up mud and more mud!

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS by Dave Mutter

THE Yarcombe Yomp is a tough, five or ten mile loop, muddy at the best of times.

Last Saturday pushed even the very toughest runner to their limit. The fields were sloppy wet and full of massive puddles.

The race was won by Roger Easterbrook of Teignbridge Trotters in 1:15:05. The first AVR home was Patrick Devine-Wright 3rd, 1:17:02.

Amy Greenhalge had a superbly strong run finishing 6th overall, first lady, 1:20:34. Rookie Mike Clark made his mark coming 11th, 1:28:00 - more to come from this new runner.

Josh Hopson was 13th, 1:29:17. Clare Hansford had an outstanding run in difficult conditions finishing 15th, 3rd lady overall, 1:30:19 followed by Eleanor Wood 17th in 1:31:43 winning the first vet 50 prize.

Tim Sibley, with a rare run on a Saturday thanks to his new job, was 19th in 1:34:53. Geoff Woodard led home a group of AVR's in 29th place in 1:41:51 and then came Steve Reynolds 30th, 1:42:28, 31st was Alan Morbey in 1:43:26.

In 32nd place was Anna McLoughlin running well taking 1:43:56. Tess Stone also running her first race for AVR came home in 34th, 1:45:05, Margaret Pearce was 35th, 1:45:39.

It was good to see Steve Maclure racing again as he finished, 42nd place, 1:50:47. Chris Hill was 43rd even after a fall in the woods in 1:53:49.

The third new AVR runner was Anders Larsson, 46th in 1:57:58 followed by Yvette Hill 53rd, 2:05:17.

Completing the AVR 10 milers was Sue Venn, 2:10:34. There were 57 runners in total. Most of the recorded times were about 10 minutes slower than last year thanks to the gloopy mud and soaking wet fields.

The one loop five mile run was won by Flo Swan who paced Amy all the way round the first lap finishing in a magnificent time of 39:08, having already swum two miles before the race. Robin Britton was 6th in 56:03.

A big thank you to Robin Carter and James Jackson for putting on such a great event.

Other AVR helpers were Garry, Janet, Dave, Phil, Rick and Amy.

This event raised over £600 for the hall funds.

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS by Paul Masters

THE Yarcombe Yomp commenced from the Village Hall with runners heading out along the quiet lane for a few hundred meters before taking to the fields, bye-ways and streams.

With just two runners, competition for CRR's top spot was limited.

Tackling the mud, water and then more mud Paul Fraser headed the way for CRR's, but as the mud got deeper so Paul's ankle took the opportunity to cry out and led to Paul dropping out of the run and switching to the five-mile route finishing in 57.53.

This left Helen Baxter to take the 10-mile route as the only CRR's representative. Keeping a focus through the very wet course she finished in a strong position in just over two hours.

Colyton girls surge through

COLYTON Grammar School's junior girls' team are through to the regional finals of the English Schools' Cross Country Cup after they crushed their rivals by 24 points at the King's College, Taunton writes Kevin Fahey.

Connie Hickman (Queens College) dominated the race so Caitlin Smith, a member of Axe Valley Runners, and Izzy Steele wisely ran together to make the podium by finishing second and third.

With Marnie Broomby fifth and Evie Dewhurst 11th the Colyton girls brushed aside the challenge from Queen's College and Taunton Prep.

The regional final was scheduled for last Saturday (November 7th).

Results: 1st Connie Hickman (Queens College) 11:47; 2nd Caitlin

◆ TOO STRONG: The Colyton Junior girls cross country team

Smith (Colyton) 12:30; 3rd Izzy Steele (Colyton) 12:56.

Teams: 1 Colyton

Grammar 21 (Smith, Steele, 5 Marnie Broomby 13:18, 11 Evie Dewhurst 13:46, 20 Justine Rannou 14:23, 37 Hatty Tremlett 16:03); 2nd Queen's College 45; 3rd Taunton Prep 46.

◆ WINNERS: THE Ottery St Mary U 11 Cup Winning team which was presented with their trophies at the recent East Devon Youth Cricket League awards and presentation night held at the Pavilions, Exmouth was attended by almost 300 players and parents from across the region.
